My Dear Friend:

When I last saw you here at the Ebbitt House, just before you left for Burlington, Vt., you told me that if there was anything turned up and you could serve me you would be glad to do me a favor. I have now a chance, with your assistance, to be reinstated in the Treasury Dept. As an exsoldier of the late war, I would esteem it a great act of kindness if you will send to me by return mail a strong letter for Hon. Lyman G. Gage, Secy of the Treas., and in it please state that it would give you great pleasure to know that I am reinstated.

Dear General, I am in need of some position, and as you

My dear General:-

I had no idea that there was a single sentence in my letter to you, that could be construed to be discouraging in the slightest degree - On the other hand every thing is highly encouraging - The spiritual condition of our people - The gain in membership - The gain - Extraordinary gain in the weekly envelope collections - The average attendance at our meetings - And God blessing upon all our efforts - Dr. Briggs Church no doubt will give us the full $100 - $25 already paid - We shall receive a good collection from Dr. Storrs Church - Dr. Lyman's idea is only in harmony with the general view that the Church Extension Society - ought to support this mission and support it so that it shall not be a "begging orphan" - but a work under the direction and care of the Congregational Churches of N.Y. & Brooklyn or rather of Greater New York - It did not decline to do anything, but rather to advocate doing better for it than we asked - Under the new management of the Church Extension Society, when it is new work this work will be fostered and developed as it ought to be - We are now the only one of the churches in this section that is making progress - The smallest and least considered of all, yet is doing as much work and gaining more than any of the others - God is with and blessing us - In this

There is only cause for rejoicing and encouragement, and it was only this idea - encouragement & rejoicing I had in view in my letter to you - From the bottom of my heart I am sorry for writing a sentence that would in the least convey the shadow of any other thought.

Monday you will probably arrive in the City - Tuesday you will be busy at the Grant Announcements - Wednesday or Thursday you may have a breathing spell - at least I hope you will - I enclose directed envelop, and note so that all you will have to do is to fill time and places where I can meet you -

Our Easter Service was crowded hardly standing room left anywhere - God blessed the Service -

With my prayer that our loving Heavenly Father may bless you - Keep you strong and make you a great blessing to many for many years -

Sincerely yours

In His name

My dear General:--

I had a car on the siding to send my horse to New York, as well as having secured my transportation and sleeping car accommodations. And was jubilant in the expectations of participating with you in the dedication of the monument to our old and beloved Commander Gen. ## AN HISTORIC FLAG.

THE ONE CARRIED BY COL. CHARLES PAINTER IN INDIAN WARS.

When the First and Second regiments went into camp at Camp McGraw in 1894 the Olympian related an interesting story as to an old flag that was there and is now the property of Col. Charles Painter of this city. It is the same flag that was on the old Indian battle ground near Frenchtown last Saturday. The Olympian said:

When Company I of Walla Walla folded their tents and packed their equipments yesterday, they carefully put away an historic flag which the company carries, and which attracted no end of interest during the encampment. It is the property of W. C. Painter of Walla Walla, who carried it through the Yakima war of 1855. The flag contains but 21 stars and bears the inscription, "Co. D, First Regiment Oregon Volunteers."

The interesting relic was made by the young ladies of Forest Grove Academy at the outbreak of the Indian war. The flag was designed by Dr. S. H. Marsh, President of Pacific University, and "Grandma" Brown, who was one of the founders of that institution, and was made by Misses Jane Kinney, Sarah A. Ross, Caroline Brown, Mary J. Stott, Martha Spalding, A. A. Stott, Mary McGhee, Jane Robinson, Mary Ellen Reed, Georgia Reed, Ellen Robinson, Gus. Mulkey (now wife of L. N. Dolph, Senator, of Oregon) and Mrs. Kitchen.

It was carried by Col. Painter, who took part in all the engagements of the campaign, and to whom it was presented at the close of the war.

The first engagement was at Yakima Canyon, near where North Yakima now stands, and was the first battle in which Phil. Sheridan, then a lieutenant, ever took part. It came into service again in the Bannock war of 1878, when Governor Ferry appointed Mr. Painter captain of a company of volunteers, and was assigned to the gunboat Spokane under Major Ross. Their first engagement was at Island. The volunteers were routed by the regulars, but Mr. Painter was elected captain of another company and followed the Indians to Camas Prairie, on the Grand Ronde, where he captured enough horses to pay the expenses of his campaign. For his valliant services he was appointed aid-de-camp with the rank of lieutenant-colonel on the staff of Gov. Ferry and was presented with a handsome sword.

The first and second regiments were camped at Camp McGowan in 1854 and participated in an interesting story on an old flag that was there and is now the property of Col. Charles Painter of this city. It is the same flag that was on the old Indian battle ground near Frenchtown last Saturday. The flag was said:
 When Company I of Walla Walla sold their tents and packed their equipments yesterday, they carried out a way on historic flag which the company carried, and which attracted no end of interest during the encampment. It is the property of W. C. Painter of Walla Walla.
 It was carried through the Yakima war of 1855. The flag contains but 31 stars and bears the inscription, "Co. I, First Regiment Oregon Volunteers." The interesting relic was made by the young ladies of Forest Grove Academy at the outbreak of the Indian war. The flag was designed by Dr. H. H. Henshaw, President of Pacific University, and "Grandma" Brown, who was one of the founders of that institution, and was made by the following ladies: Mary J. Shaw, Kate, Christine Brown, Mary J. Shaw, Martha Spaulding, A. A. Scott, Mary Mc-Ghee, Jane Robinson, Mary Ellen Reed, George Reed, Ellen Robinson, Geo.
 Miller (now wife of J. M. DeLong, Son-in-law of Oregon) and Mrs. Kitchin.
 It was carried by Col. Painter, who took part in all the engagements of the campaign, and to whom it was presented at the close of the war.
 The first engagement was at Yakima Canyon, near where North Yakima now stands, and was the first battle in which Paul Shastan, then a lieutenant, ever took part. It came into service again in the Hancock war of 1855, when Governor Perry appointed Mr. Painter captain of a company of volunteers, and was sent to the Puget Sound under Major ... Their first engagement was at ... The volunteers were re-
 ... by the regulars, but Mr. Painter was elected captain of another com-and followed the Indians to Camp ... on the Grand Ronde, where he obtained enough horses to pay the expenses of his campaign. For his valiant services he was appointed aide-de-camp

Dear Sir,

Your very kind letter of 15th is received and content noted. It would give me great pleasure to see an account of the Bonnach-Rite, Indian war, in which I took a part, as the copy of a letter enclosed written by Brig. Gen. Lieut. Col. John A. Kress, will explain. Gen. Wheaton, and Gen. Forsyth as well as yourself, were cognizant of the part that I took in this expedition, and I conceived all of you, in regard to the disposal to make of the captured property.

Is there not some way that I could be recognized for my services; as they were given - as Colonel Kress, says, "with but hope to reward"

I will enclose copy of endorsement for Receiver of M. S. Land Office, so that you may know my former record, and judge whether I am worthy of recognition for services - on

Dear Sir I take the liberty of writing to you and wish you to intercede, with your influence in behalf of a dear deserving old Comrade one Albert Small who is now in need of help if he ever gets it at all

You will no doubt remember him he being one of the party who took the train here at Minong Washburn County Wis. last fall and went with you to Superior and Duluth when you were making your tour through Northern Wis. and Minn. He is one of Capt. Duncans Company, He receives no pension yet and it seems there is not much show for him for some time yet as they keep asking for additional evidence in his case, yet he has furnished enough to hang a hundred men in any court of equity if they were on a trial charged with their lives He is a staunch Republican and always has been all the republicans here are united and would wish to see him relieved He wants the Post Office at this place and should have it The holder of said office now is a staunch

Democrat and was appointed at The last moment before The democrats went out of power. Comrad all has a family to maintain and is not able to do so on account of disability. He is honest, sober and industrious. This last winter he had The misfortune to cut one of his legs very badly, was confined to his house and bed for a long time, under a physicians care, He had to use crutches all the latter part of The winter and now at The present writing he can get around very poorly, yet he is perfectly able to attend to The duties of said office if it is given him.
We are full assured That if you would correspond with our dear President in his behalf He would listen to your appeal. Please do what you can for him at your earliest opportunity and let us hear from you in regard to This matter

Dear General:

Some time ago I noticed an article written by you, speaking of the boys that served in our late war. I was one of them. To young in years to be mentioned. Yet I seen hard service and was in many a hard fought battle. My father was an army surgeon in the 2d Corp. I went with him and shared all the hardships of a private soldier. At the battle of Stone River for two days and a night I did not see him. I sleep in the field and endured much service in my wound.
Comrades as was in my power. And yet to day I cannot enter the G. A. R. from the fact I was never mentioned.

To show me how by which one might be mentioned at this late day! If not with out the generous government that we as boys from 12 years of age up, done all that was within our power to do, now recognize us in some way. Of which your article spoke of about 1100. Will you please answer.

My dear General:-

You have been kind enough to give me extremely pleasant endorsements to Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss and Hon. H. Clay Evans, for the position of chief clerk or chief of the Middle Division, Pension Bureau.

With yourself I had the support of your friend General Estes, four United States Senators and twelve or fourteen members of the House, six of whom called on Mr. Evans and personally recommended my selection.

The position of chief clerk is filled and it is practically settled that I am not to be selected for a chief of a Division as I desired.

Since I cannot secure the position I wanted I would very much like to secure the next best place I can, which seems to me to be that of a Principal Examiner of the Pension Bureau, paying a salary of $2000. per annum. There are thirty or more such places, most of which are filled by gentlemen who came into the service after I did.

Your two letters must have brought my name to the attention of Mr. Evans and have done me much good; and while I very much appreciate what you have done for me, I would be much pleased if
