General, O. O. Howard,
Dear General,

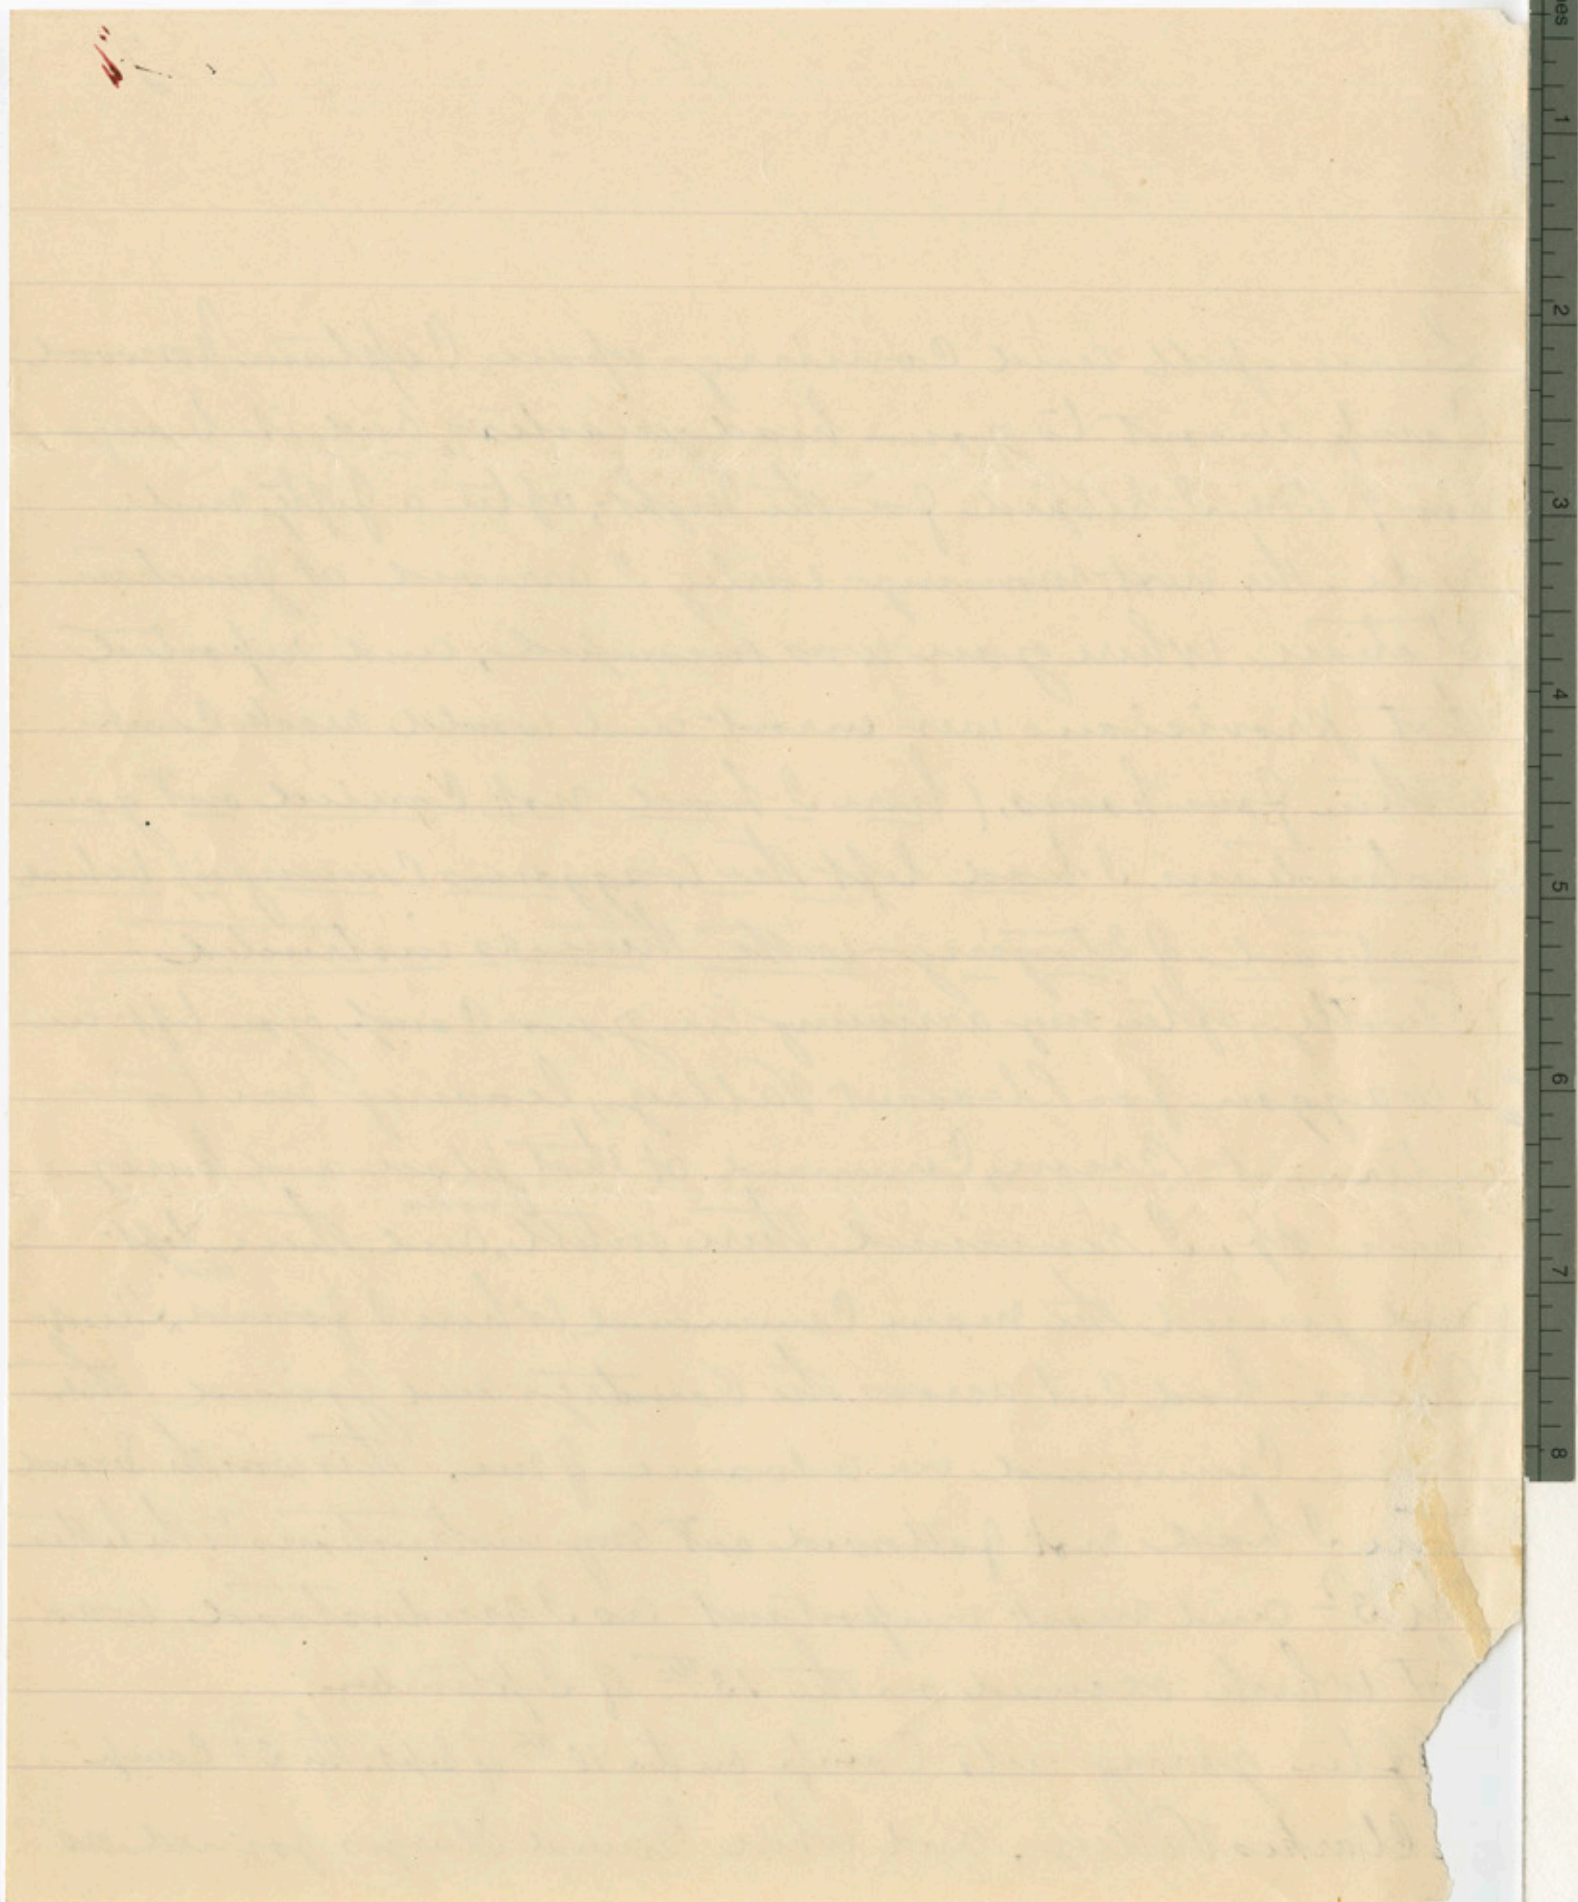

Washington, D.C.

Ever since our race across the continent with the Nez Percé Indians, I have been anxious to make an explanation why certain orders or instructions from you, were not carried out. The first case, was, that, when I was sent back to Bannock City, in Montana, for supplies, with instructions to have relays of horses, on the road, and stay with the supplies, until they reached the Command. On my arriving at Bannock City, I presented my credentials to one of the owners of the largest stores in the place, and there presented the bill of supplies needed, and the conditions of payment, which was accepted. I then asked the Merchant to hurry them into the wagons, and he himself to come with them, that I had a relay of horses on the road, and not spare the whip, after leaving the first relay I left the wagons, and went forward to make arrangements for other relays, but not being Successful and coming upon Captain Norwood's Camp, enroute to your headquarters, and it being now 7 P.M. I stopped for the night; after a fifty mile ride, the next morning early I arrived at Junction Station, where you was encamped, and reported that provisions were enroute and would reach Camp within four hours, (here I had not carried out your instructions, I had left the waggons coming up behind instead of staying with them as instructed.) Shortly after my arriving in your Camp, you left in a waggon for Pleasant Valley, leaving me to intercept Bacon's Command at that place and hurry him up. I remained there until ^{noon} and then left ^{that} and joined the main Command, where I found Lieut. Bacon, had cut across the Country and joined the main Command in advance of me. This was the second time I had not followed out my instructions to the letter. The 3^d and most important - as I understood, was that which occurred on the 13th of September.

After going into Camp on the 10th of Sept: the 2^d Camp in Clark's Valley, and where General Sturges joined us and the next morning started out to make 50 miles a day until he caught the Nez Perce Indians. Our own Command made about 20 miles that day, and went into camp late in the evening during one of the greatest rain, and wind storms of the Campaign, and before I had taken off the saddle from my horse, an Orderly came to me and said the General, wished to see me, I reported at the door of your tent, and was instructed to get ready, and carry to General Sturges, who was supposed to be some 25 miles ahead of us, after getting something to eat, I brought up my horse, (which had been on the run for 3 days,) when Col Mason came out of the tent, and looked about; and said it was impossible to travel in such darkness, especially so, when one was unacquainted with the Country. I received the dispatches, and started out to deliver them, to General Sturges. I traveled all night, down Clark's valley, and at one time; was compelled to cross Clark's River, and could only guess from the rippling of the water whether it was deep or shallow. The horse that I had been chasing General Sturges, Command around Heart Mountain with was now getting to disregard the Spurs or the Whip. I dismounted and let him graze a few minutes, and then again started up, and reached Major Sanford's Camp, (General Sturges, having left broke Camp 25 or 30 minutes before. I asked May Sanford for a mount, that I might deliver the dispatches to Gen Sturges, May Sanford declined to let me have a horse, I then asked him if he would send the dispa-atches to Gen Sturges, he said he would, I then went away and found a little glade where I spent an hour or two, grazing my horse, and then returned to your Command, being the 2^d time I failed to carry out your instructions. The first, on account of Lieut Bacon taking a short cut to the Command, and the other on account of my horse failing, and Major Sanford refusing to give me a mount.

Yours Very Respectfully
A. Chapman.

as you may from your larger Experience and more extended acquaintance with Indians in general be able to give me and for such views or suggestions as as to the fulfillment of the duties imposed as you may kindly like to give. Some think the Indians are too well treated and that the only good Indian is a dead one while others consider them as shamefully abused and that there have souls to be saved or lost.

From what I know of you I think I may safely assume that we have ~~at least~~ a common sympathy and belief and that strict justice entitles them to as reasonable and fair consideration as their more fortunate white brethren - It may be that you have had a hand in suggesting or securing this appointment

My Dear General

As perhaps you may have already learned from the newspapers I have been appointed one of three Commissioners (and so far as I now know the only one yet named which would indicate me as Chairman) to negotiate for cession of Lands &c with certain Indian tribes - viz

With the Crow & Flatheads in Montana for the cession of portions of their respective reservations - With the Northern Cheyenne and Crow Indians for the removal of said Northern Cheyennes from their present reservation on the Rosebud River at Lake Deer Agency to the Southern portion of the Crow Reservation —

With the Indians residing on the Fort Hall Indian Reservation in the State of Idaho, and with the Indians residing upon the Uintah Reservation in the State of Utah for the surrender of any portion of their respective reservations, or for such modification of existing treaties as may be deemed desirable by said Indians and the Secretary of the Interior; and with the Yakima Indians in the State of Washington for the surrender of a portion of their reservation lands and for such modification of existing treaties as may be deemed desirable by said Indians and the Secy of the Interior. The above is in substance the duties of the Commission as set forth in Act of Congress of June 10 1896 — Of course other and probably more definite instructions will be given the Commission by the Indian Bureau, but I take this opportunity of informing you of my appointment, with which I am much pleased, fully as much for the opportunity afforded me of visiting a portion of our country entirely new to me and of viewing & interviewing an interesting people, passing rapidly away; as for the emoluments involved. It appears to me also a work of some little importance and possibly more may be involved for the welfare of these uncivilized or half civilized human beings than appears in the act.

It is therefore with a desire for more knowledge than I now possess on the subject that I ask you for such information and I am the more led to think this the case because of its having been made or recommended by the Hon^l Secy. on the 22^d inst thus commemorating an eventful day in my soldier life - at Atlanta

Whether accident or design it is certainly pleasing and I am going to claim it as a recognition of my army service and as a sort of reward of merit

Thanking you warmly for all the interest taken in my behalf and asking for as full and prompt reply as possible and with the desire for remembrance by my wife & daughters all of whom are quite well

I Remain as ever

Yours Respy

My Dear Genl. Howard:

On my visit to Burlington in the Spring you suggested that if I returned in the Summer that you could introduce me to some of your friends who may become interested in the work of Harvard University.

Kindly let me know by return mail what prospects there may be of reaching such friends.

Am to speak here tomorrow the 25th inst, morning & evening.

Awaiting your favor

My Dear Sir -

Allow me to state, in reply to your letter of July 21st, that I do not mean to make a good case against, nor to denounce Rev. Dr. Talmage. This would be as foolish as it would be un-Christian. But one of the pressing questions of the hour is "Sabbath Reform". It is becoming not only a religious, but also a sociological and humanitarian question; oftentimes, it is a business question as well. The new managers of the B. & O. RR, Mr. Martin has just decided to do away with Sunday trains as much as possible.

The present case is this. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. opened a summer park at Blue Lake, Iowa, some four years ago. In the summer they hire noted men to come and speak there on Sunday. They pay them so much, and they run special trains for their town benefit.

One Sunday, they will have Dr. Talbot, the next Sunday, they will have Robert G.
Ingersoll. It is not the fact of empty churches that I deplore - my own church did not suffer much from it; only two went - but Dr. Talbot's name and fame are made use of for justifying Sunday excursions, with all their evils, pic-nic style parties, lemonade stands, etc. etc. But of a hundred who go to hear him, how many go with a desire to receive instruction or spiritual benefits?
If they do, does this constitute a sufficient offset for the other evil of Sabbath-breaking?
Does the end justify the means?
Dr. Talbot's sermons at

MAPLETON, MINN.,

1897.

Clear Lake, Iowa, are not delivered under the auspices of any religious society. The R.R. Co hire him as a drouting card, and they pay him 20 cents, and get the rest of the money for themselves.

In the case of religious summer schools, camp-meetings, I believe most Christians oppose the running of special trains to swell the attendance. But in the above case, trains do not run on Sunday along most of the line, from Mansfield, thro this place, to Clear Lake. They run only for such special occasions, for Dr. Talmon or Mr. Ingorsell.

My idea was simple and is in answer to several inquiries - to state all the good that must be said of Dr. Talmon.

for he has done a wonderful work, but also to say that, in this particular case, he is making a mistake.

I have received several letters which will try give due credit to Dr. Talmage - deprecate his mistake. It is certainly a minister's duty to obey the apostolic injunction: "Set not thine foot upon the neck of the poor." If giving this explanation will be satisfactory, I am

Dear Brother:-

I have your kind letter of July 24th containing the New York draft. I am sorry if what I said about my own responsibility has put you to inconvenience. I did not so intend it, but simply wanted you to know that I was finally compelled to take the responsibility of supplying the cash, that is, becoming responsible as an endorser. I thought it was right that I should inform you of the fact. I did not like to do it for the reasons explained, but no one would cash the draft, that is to say, Culver found no one, unless I would endorse it; in fact, as the draft was drawn to my order it would in a sense discredit it if I signed "without recourse," and as there did not seem to be time to send it back and have it made to his order, and as I thought it doubtful whether he could then get the money, I thought it was better for me to endorse it; but I did not intend in my writing to put you to any more trouble, except to provide for it at the end of the sixty days. I will, however, now take up the draft as soon as practicable and return it to you. It was cashed by our friend Mr. Dewar. He is no longer a banker, strictly speaking, but is in a kind of brokerage business on his own personal account, and did this as ^{an accommodation} ~~a condition~~ to Mr. Culver and to us.

As to the merits of the case, I think probably I have said enough, but had some further conversation with Mr. Culver this morning, and he says he finds that all the work done by Gov. Hamilton was very thoroughly done, and he thinks there is no escape from the final conclusion in your favor. One or two other parties who will join with you will supply something like $250. or more of additional funds, but Mr. Culver says he will not call upon you for any more, no matter what the various items of costs may be. Of course, if it had not been for this accumulation of testimony on the two cases appealed and tried under the management of Gov. Hamilton, there would not have been in any one item so much expense, but that represents work of two years or more and litigation before two or three different courts.

I note with great interest what you say concerning Logan. The comparison with Gordon Granger had occurred to me, and I had mentioned it to Kitty as an instance proving that Sherman did not select his commanders merely because they were West Pointers; and the case of Hooker which you mention is still more to the point, as he was a candidate for the very position to which you were appointed.

I was present at the unveiling of the statue, and greatly enjoyed the oration of Col. George R. Peck. He is a personal friend of mine, and one of the finest orators, I think, living in America. Of course, the oration was eulogistic of Logan — that was the purpose of it. In the one place where you were personally alluded to, he spoke of you as a gallant general, and there was no shadow of disparagement in any respect. In the newspapers, I observed that that one phrase in regard to yourself was omitted. Whether the oration was taken down in shorthand and the reporter did not get it exact, or whether that phrase was purposely omitted, I cannot say; but I heard every word distinctly, and know that he used that expression concerning yourself.

I was going to write you this morning to ask on what date you will be here. Mr. Culver desires to have your testimony on some points in the new prosecution in going on with your case, and is required to

My dear General:

I find your letter of the 14th inst. upon my return to Washington today, inclosing that of Mr. Ames. When President McKinley assumed office he found at his disposal but one cadet-ship, which was given this June to the son of Mrs. Sheridan, and this appointment does not take effect until next year. Next year he will have at his disposal but two appointments-at-large for West Point, and these I understand have also already been promised. Am very sorry to have to write you a letter of this kind, and could suggest as the only possible means for young Ames to enter West Point, that he secure appointment through his Representative in Congress.

Very truly yours,

My dear General.

Yours of 19th instant with enclosure for Post. McKinley was received yesterday on my return here; I have been to see one of my sons. I will make it a point to see you before I go back to Panama. — I have sent your letter to Post. McKinley to a friend of mine in Washington who is an intimate friend of Secretary Criddle; they will consult over it and I will abide by their judgment.

Ever so many thanks to you for your kindness.

I am, General
Yours very truly, at the ... You & Missionary Society held its annual meeting there. For one day more to see you than anything else - and just missed you there also - You see I have made several efforts to see you - I wanted very much to talk over these business matters, and see if anything could be done - I think it strange that my husband did not mention your case to me, and make sure I understood it, as he did some others.

Dear Friend -

I have returned home from an absence of six & a half months, to find your letter awaiting my arrival -

You wrote me last year soon after my husband's death, and I replied that if you would ~~only~~ give me some data to work from, I would gladly do anything, possibly could to assist you -

If I remember rightly, your replied bidding me not to worry about it.

and as you gave me no facts, and I knew nothing whatsoever about it, I seemed powerless to do anything.

When I heard of your campaign trip in our state, and that you were coming to West Point, I felt as if I must see you. So I went down there for that express purpose, only to find that I had not been rightly informed as to the time of your departure. I am special train left a half hour before I reached there.

Then I hoped I might see you sometime during my own campaign in the east from July till now - but have had no opportunity.

Last year I was in Boston when you gave your lecture on Gethysburg, and made every effort to be in Cam-pello the morning you were there, but was defeated by circumstances beyond my control.

Then I went to New Haven three winters past.

Please write me again if I can do anything in any way.

Faithfully & sincerely.

Mary H. Ellis

the hardest experience I have ever had in the east, and the heat here is oppressive.
~~There~~ children were compelled to move while I was away, though the place being sold & and quite a large part of our goods are stored. Everything is so mixed up, I do not know if I can find my husband's correspondence now or not. It was packed away and has not been unboxed since.
You can write O. D.
Taylor, at "The Dalles" Oregon - I doubt if you get any satisfaction from him. Though you may.

I thought I would myself write Mr Rorick regarding it. But in the pressure of other things have not done so. He will write you what he knows of it I think.

His address is
J. P. Rorick, Grand
Dalles. Wash -
The Grand Dalles business is a great trouble to me, and I do not know if I shall ever be able to free myself from it.

I am entirely uncertain what I shall do next year - or where I shall be - and if I break up the home entirely as I am likely to be compelled to do, I shall of course take special care of all the correspondence remaining, and will then see if I can find anything concerning your matter -

I am so sorry I have not succeeded in seeing you - hope I may if I am east-again next winter as I have been for

Dear General Howard:-

I thank you for your kind letter to Mr. McCoy received in your favor of the 22nd inst. I know he will appreciate it and doubtless he will acknowledge it when he receives it. Our Association in Oakland is progressing. We are steadily gaining ground along Spiritual and Educational lines.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear General Howard.

As to the matter of seeking funds for our Agricultural Department, I find the Executive Committee have such various views, that I do not regard it wise to proceed further in the matter, until we have had another meeting of the Board.

Mr. Smith wrote me, that he had written you, that I should write: so I do.

Perhaps, the time may come, when, if agreeable & convenient to you, something of the kind may be arranged. So far as our correspondence shows, you discouraged me in my project of visiting you on the errand. But, I have had assurances from Mr. Smith that you had reconsidered your decision.

I hope you & your family are well.
We are all here, & Mary & Mrs.

Stoddard has been here, with her husband.

I go to Ocean Park to an assembly there, where I preach, & lecture on Fredrick Douglass, & also, on Afro-American Educational Work.

With love to all,

Very truly,

Wm. Brewster.

Dear Gen. Howard:-

I have received word from Madison, Wis. this morning saying that a letter from you indicates that you think your date there is July 29th instead of 30th. I wrote you on the 24th of May that I had changed the date and trust that you received it all right. "Grant at Chattanooga" is the subject. Mr. Moseley says I failed to notify you of the decision.
This is the first letter I have received giving subject, although I had written him sometime ago in regard to it.

Logan, Ohio,
My dear General!

July 27 1897

As you are interested in the success of my history of the Army of the Potomac - that is I presume you are, I will tell you that I want to get out another edition, and in order to do that I need money - I own the plates, and if I was re-masted in the Civil service I could easily issue the third edition. Once before he died you gave me a strong recommendation, or did Sawyer Hamilton, Sigel, Ames, Cobb, G. A. Grant, Gregg, Beener and others. I have a strong prospect that Pa., will take it as a reader in the public schools - the state furnishes the books, it is now taken as a reference work in the schools of Indiana.

If you would be good enough to write H. Kelly Evans a personal letter I would most appreciate it;

Hoping you will accept General Ours very sincerely
