Dear Genl. Sanford.

I have not been able to get my traps yet owing to the delay of the manufacturers.
They were promised me over 3 months ago. but there were some changes to be made in some of the patterns which has taken time to do. I trust to get them ready for the market to meet the Spring work. I can only plead apology. I was in hopes of lessening the amount I owe you long before this. but as you see. I being without my funds ~~am~~ have been unable to do so. and will in stead ask you to extend my my note. for me. I enclose the interest $22.50. I hope this will not inconvenience you in any way.

I saw by the papers you were in New York. Would have been glad to have seen you. I hope you enjoyed your stay.

Wishing you are in the best of health with kind regards from Mrs. Shepherd

I am very sincerely
yours.

My dear friend

Upon my return home
your letter of the 4th inst enclosing a one dollar bill was received.

I am glad to learn that you found the misplaced money.

I am delighted to have had the pleasure of even a brief visit with you and to have been of the least possible service to you affords me life pleasure.

Mrs Kline has not yet returned home but she will read your letter with much pleasure, on her return
I shall preserve your letter.

Faithfully Yours

My dear General:

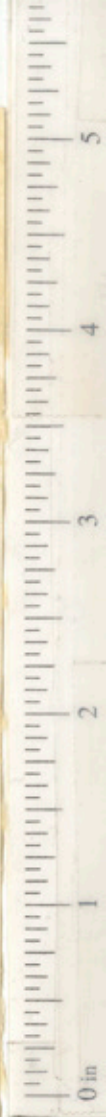

Had you ever chance
to come across the enclosed?

In preparing short essay, read yesterday before Teachers' Institute, I found an extra copy. You may deem it worthy of space in your scrap book in connection with Bannock Campaign.

With affectionate regards to Mrs. Howard and your family, I am sincerely yours, C. A. Williams.

General O. O. Howard,

Burlington, Vermont.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, and thank you very much for your kind invitation to spend Sunday with you. I regret that it will be impossible for me to accept, much as I should like to do so.

I knew perfectly well that you would not be quite in accord with all of the author's statements and conclusions. He depicts Indian life as it appeared to him. His experiences occurred a good many years ago, and before the Indians had come in contact to any great extent with civilization. Perhaps the rather long interval that has elapsed since the expiration of his service may have somewhat dulled his memory, though so far as memory is concerned, he has a most remarkable one.

If there are any serious blemishes, I want to rectify them and will ask you to kindly point them out so that we may have everything as near right as it is possible to make it. I am very much gratified to know that you are interested in it. I thought you would be. When it is issued in its completed form, with all the illustrations and colored plates, it will make a very valuable addition to Indian literature.

If necessary I can meet you any time in New York. It is much more convenient for me to run down there than to go to Burlington, and at this season of the year I am always head over heels in business in anticipation of the holidays. Still, I would run down there any time and will hold myself in readiness to obey any summons you may send by mail, or by telegraph.

I am glad to know that you will have the introduction done in good time. I shall be glad to receive it. I would not mind if it could be ready even earlier than the time fixed.

Thanking you for the interest you take in this volume, and asking you to give me your criticisms freely, I beg leave to remain

Very sincerely yours,

A. D. Worthington

Mr. G. O. Howard,

Washington, D.C.

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, and thank you very much for your kind invitation to spend Sunday with you. I regret that it will be impossible for me to accept, much as I should like to do so.

I have particularly said that you would not be quite in accord with the plan of the book's contents and conclusions. He before Indian history appeared to him. His experience covered a good many years and before the Indians had come in contact to any great extent. Between the Indian and the white man, that has elapsed the experience of the service may have somewhat dulled his memory.

It is true that any serious business I want to rectify them will ask you to kindly point them out so that I may have every-thing as near right as it is possible to make it. I am very much interested to know that you are interested in it. I thought you would find it is shown in its completed form, with all the illustrations and colored plates, it will make a very valuable addition to the literature.

I am sorry I can meet you any time in New York. It is a pity that I cannot go to see you there and to go to Washington. I am always glad to see you and I am always glad to see you in business. I would run down there any time I could.

I am glad to know that you will have the introduction done for me. I shall be glad to receive it. I would not mind it if it were ready when I am in the line fixed. Thank you for the interest you take in this volume, and I hope to give you some criticism freely. I hope to remain very sincerely yours,
