My Dear General:

I have thought a great deal about your Cumberland Gap University since you were here and am very serious in saying that I wish there might be a place for me there to do some work in life which would satisfy an ambition I have to be of some real benefit to my fellow men before I am called hence.

Since how or another you always do me a lot of good when you come to see me but you always leave me rather dissatisfied with myself, and what I am accomplishing.

I would give all the money of the New York millionaires, if I possessed it; for the satisfaction of knowing that I had done one hundredth part for my fellow men that you have to

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Friend:-

For four years I have been carrying on this Orphan School for poor Orphans who have been left motherless and fatherless by the Hand of Providence. I have an "Endowment Fund" to my school, I am compelled to visit friends each month asking aid. I have set apart Monday Jan. 2, 1899 as the first Donation Day for 99. I ask you please be generous and help us believing the Lord will bless you. Now dear friend as this is the first of the year, I hope you will decide to help these little Orphans before you make your pledges for 99. I thank you for helping us last year. I hope you will continue your kindness toward the children of men. I am trying to raise $250 by Jan. 10, 99 so please let me hear from you by that time.

Very truly yours.

I called "A Dog of Flanders."
It was written by Ouida. I got and a seal to seal letters with with. I will put the seal on the back of the letter instead of sealing it with glue. It has my initial on it. I got a handkerchief too. Mamma's eye has been troubling her but it is better now. She says she thinks it's ^{is} iritis. She can not use it to read by now and so Mary is reading the newspaper to her. I read some of the book that you sent her last night. Mamma is lying down

now. Jeanie and Gracie are reading bound magazine.
We are renting this house furnished. We brought our fussicker furniture from the other house and put them around in different places and put the rest in the barn. Mr.

Dear Uncle Ole,

You will be surprised to learn that besides mother I found Father and Katharine in well. Father was in Washington the week before you went there. He read a paper before the Christian Citizenship Convention, on Civil Service Reform Related to our New Possessions. On his way home he evidently caught cold which developed into a severe attack of the grip and possibly a touch of pneumonia so that he has been confined to his bed ever since I arrived. He is somewhat better now, we think. Katharine had an ~~slight~~ attack of the grip also and has been in bed for a week or more. Mother seems to me much better than when I left last summer and Burt thinks she is steadily though slowly improving. She doesn't herself always admit that she is better, but has brighter moments and the doctors think she is making a little gain.

Papa says to thank you especially for your book which he has been greatly interested in reading, as he had been quite in the dark as to your experiences during the summer. He is interested to know what you are doing in regard to your memoir. From some talk he has had with the publishers he is afraid they think the public would not now have the same interest in any events or experiences of the Civil War as they had before the Spanish War. The last war, they say, fills the public eye and attention. Your new book was therefore a good hit in this respect.
However he wants you to go on as soon as practicable and finish the other memoir, and to make it as perfect as possible in all details even though it should wait for years before being published. When published, he thinks more than ever, it would be of prime importance to have a first class publisher.

He believes that it will come along in course of time - that the work will be sought for by such a publisher, like T. Y. Crowell, for example, who was always very earnest to bring it out, or Lippincott or possibly even Scribner or Harper. He asks whether you have ever had any communication on the subject with Todd, Mead & Co, or Fords, Howard and Hurlbut. Whatever is done by the latter, he says, is usually well done and he thinks they would be very kindly disposed to aid you.

We were pleased to have a letter from Guy a few days ago, mentioning the fact that Genie and the children were with him, and showing a kindly interest in Arthur, who, as you know, is now with ^{the 1st} R. I. regiment at Columbia.
Papa says your book has helped him understand better the nature of Arthur's work. The family sends wishes for a happy New Year to the family in New York.
Burt has been at home this week
helping care for the sick ones. Sister Nina has continued Mother's constant attendant day and night. Naturally she has not had time for much else.

I shall return Friday of this week reaching N. Y. Saturday. I have been able to help Father somewhat writing letters and even doing a little editorial work at the office. Notwithstanding the sickness it has been a happy Christmas though very different from any other in our history -
With much love to all with you
Your affectionate nephew

Major General O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir:

I do not ask you to take the time to reply to this, but I do desire to express my gratitude to God and to you for your recent Christian work for soldiers, and I know that many have the same feeling.

Doubtless you will not remember me though I have met you for a few moments more than once. Your brother, I was more acquainted with, the minister somewhat intimately. In '61-'63 I was chaplain 6th Vt. vols. That old Vermont brigade was heroic, but the men of military education were few. Col. Whiting of the 2^d. was the only West Point man whose example was not a hindrance to Christian work. He was faithful everywhere that I met him or heard of him. Smith, Hyde, the two Stoughtons, and Small, I remember with sadness. Though they all treated me politely and sometimes very kindly. Yet there were West Point men who helped us even ^{if} we did not see them. Your own voice was not heard in our progen meetings, but your name was often heard there, and we loved to unite with you in the scene "where spirits blend." I used to think then of the strange mistake of some ministers who had formerly blamed you for being a soldier.

You will pardon me for writing what my heart prompts. May you be spared and strengthened for yet other years of service as a good soldier.

Very cordially yours,
Edward A. Stone.

At a series of meetings now being held for the purpose of replying to Mr. Ingersoll's arguments against religion, the people in the audience are persistently interrupting the speakers with cries in which the names of public men foremost in government, in the army and navy, etc. are mentioned by name with the inference that they are disciples of Ingersoll.

This feature of the meeting has been given wide publicity and much importance has been attached to the nature of the interruptions, the inference being that there is a popular belief that many of our most famous and distinguished men of the day are free-thinkers, agnostics and unbelievers: that if they are not enemies of Christianity, they are at least not Christianity's friends.

Therefore, for the purpose of getting the men in the front ranks of national and state government and in the army and navy, etc. to put themselves on record, if they will, as the friends of Christianity, one of the papers which I represent has asked me to write to you in the hope that you may deem the question worthy of your kindness, in the form of an answer.

The question in its simplest form is this:

"Are you a friend of Christianity?"

Or if you prefer to avoid the personal: "Do you believe that Christianity is the friend of mankind?"

"Does your belief extend to the recognition of a supreme Being, to the Divinity of Christ, to the surpassing potency of Christianity as a civilizing influence?"

I will appreciate any reply even if it is only the simple affirmative, "Yes." The answers will be printed as received and the whole matter is to be treated only in the most quiet and dignified way.

Further information will be gladly furnished.

With assurances of gratitude for any courtesy you may extend, I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,

My Dear Sir,-

I take the liberty of addressing you in the hope that the request to follow, will be deemed by you worthy of your consideration.

For the past two years the New Britain, Conn., Young Men's Christian Association has celebrated Washington's birthday upon the Sunday immediately proceeding or following the day.

It will occur this year upon Sunday February 19th. At these times, the feature of the meeting is an address by some man of prominence in military affairs who can fill the audience full of true and enthusiastic patriotism. We have had two similar gatherings in (1897 and 1898) each of which has been attended by thirteen hundred men, twenty-six hundred in all, three hundred of whom were in Uniform (G. A. R. Posts & Militia).

We do not know of any larger gatherings of men in our entire state, or in New England, brought together to commemorate the birthday of our Nation's Hero.

Our celebration of the day occurring on Sunday, we trust sincerely, your engagements will permit of your presence with us at this time. Our Speakers at our other gatherings have been the Department Commanders of the G. A. R. - New York State.

We shall have an Orchestra of twelve pieces and a Male Chorus of twenty-five voices, to render Patriotic music.

Will you kindly advise us within a few days whether or no, we may hope for your presence?

I would greatly appreciate a reply by January 12th, if possible. Trusting most heartily that we may receive an affirmative reply, I am,

Very Truly Yours,

My dear Genl. Howard —

Since dictating my letter of this a.m. - in which I extended you, on behalf of our Board of Directors, an invitation to become our speaker on Feb. 19th, the occasion being a great Men's meeting commencing - ration of the birthday of Washington, the Pastors of the cities American Churches have united upon me in a body, with the exception of one man, in connection with a grand evangelistic effort scheme which they have planned to carry on beginning Feb. 14th. —

In the discussion, I stated that

I had just sent an invitation to you, to be our speaker at our Military Service Union I had planned for Feb. 19 - and asked them if I should arrange otherwise (as far as the exact date for our meeting was concerned) thinking that they might view such a thing as being inopportune.

On the contrary, they immediately insisted that I should write you again supplementing our invitation, by a most cordial expression ^{of desire} from them, that you be with us on the afternoon of Feb. 19 - , they feeling that your address at our Military men's Meeting, altho' not of an evangelistic character, would assist very materially in their Union

Dear General Howard:-

Dr. Clark is anxious to obtain from you a brief message to be printed in our Christian Endeavor Day number, the number that marks the beginning of the nineteenth year of Christian Endeavor. What we desire is a very brief sentence or two -- no more than 100 words -- setting before the Endeavorers of the world some ideal for their service of Christ during the coming year; any matter that is near your heart and that you would like to impress upon this wide constituency. The number in question must be printed very soon indeed, so that it will be necessary for us to have your reply very promptly -- within a day or two if possible. I earnestly hope that you will be able to favor us with this message.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:-

I enclose you a copy of the Resolutions which it is proposed to offer for adoption by the Meeting of Business men on Wednesday next. Kindly suggest such changes in the matter or form as may occur to you. I presume that the daily press will pretty well advertise the Meeting by advanced notices and also will give a brief summary of what is said and the results. The Programme will be about as follows:

Introduction by Mr. John H. Converse.

General outline of the proposed Conference and what it is intended to accomplish thereby, with reference to London Conference of 1888 by E. F. Ellinwood, D. D.

Introduction of Resolutions followed by discussion and questions answered by Judson Smith, D. D., Chairman of the General Committee and others he may call upon.

Adoption of Resolutions. Appointment of a Committee and adjournment.

RESOLUTIONS.

A special Committee appointed at the Fifth Annual Conference of Representatives of the Boards of Foreign Missions of the U.S. & Canada, having by correspondence and otherwise ascertained that an Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions in the city of New York in 1900 would meet with the general and hearty approval and co-operation of Foreign Mission Societies throughout the world, and the Committee having already taken the preliminary steps toward the projection of such a Conference, it is therefore

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that such a Conference if wisely conducted according to the plan proposed, could not fail to be of the highest educational and stimulative value; that in behalf of the Christian men and women of this city of all denominations we extend in advance a cordial welcome to the Conference and to the delegates, missionaries and others who may attend it, and that we urge upon our fellow citizens to give freely to the enterprise such aid and co-operation as it needs and deserves.

Resolved, That in order to effectually carry out the necessary arrangements for the Conference, this meeting advises the appointment of a Finance Committee to formulate the plan upon which funds shall be raised and disbursed, appoint a Treasurer, consider the Estimates proposed by the Several Special Committees, report them in total to the Executive Committee with recommendations as to the amount to be raised and its apportionment among the several Committees.

Resolved, That in order that the Christian public throughout the U.S. & Canada may participate in welcoming the Conference to this Continent, it is recommended that Committees auxiliary to the Finance Committee be appointed in other cities so far as may be practicable and expedient.

12 5th Av., City.

Dear Sir:-

It is proposed that an Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions be held in New York City in 1900 A. D., similar to the General Missionary Conference held in London in 1888.

We have been asked by the Committee, representing the Foreign Missions Boards and Societies in the United States and Canada, to call a meeting of Business men to whom the general scheme and import of the Conference may be presented in hope that they may inaugurate the movement and give expression to their interest and support.

We most cordially unite with the Executive Committee in calling such a Meeting, for Wednesday, January 11th, 4.30 P. M., at the United Charities Building, Fourth Avenue and Twenty-second Street, and we hope that you will find it convenient to be present in order that you may become more fully acquainted with the project and lend your counsel in formulating the plans for making the Conference a success and characterized by American hospitality and good-will.

The Conference itself, will represent every phase of the work of some two hundred Boards and Societies throughout the world, and while the morning sessions and sectional meetings in the afternoons will be devoted rather to the discussion of the practical conduct of Mission work, especially on the economic side, the public meetings in the afternoons and evenings will give a grand panoramic view of the peaceful conquest of the world in the name and spirit of Christ.

There were at the Conference in London 1579 delegates from every section of the globe and almost every country. It was a representative gathering of missionaries, clergymen and laymen from every calling in life. Among those present, generally thoroughly interested in the stimulative and illuminating influence of the Conference were many of the leading men of Great Britain, including the Earls of Aberdeen, Harroby and Northbrook, Lords Kinnaird, Polworth and Radstock with some sixteen Members of Parliament, eleven bishops of the Church of England, eleven archdeacons, deans and canons, twenty generals of the British Army, Admiral Rodd of the Navy, besides many other men of equal reputation in public life and letters.

There is no reason why a similar conference on this side of the water should not bring out our best and also secure the attendance of a strong delegation from Great Britain and the Continent.

Your early acceptance of the invitation to attend this meeting will be looked for with interest.

Dear Sir:-

We take pleasure in informing you that the preparation of "WHO'S WHO In America" for the press is nearing completion and the book will be issued at an early date.

A short sketch of your life has been prepared, in keeping with the general plan of the dictionary, and will appear in its pages in the proper alphabetical place, every name having been selected with special reference to importance and fitness.

We enclose herewith a proof of the biographical sketch for correction and approval, to insure against any possible errors. As a reference book of up-to-date information about distinguished living Americans, we feel certain that the work will be found to be an indispensable acquisition to your library table, and we have no doubt that its importance and usefulness will commend it to you.

The many words of encouragement and approval which come to us and the substantial support which we are receiving from all parts of the country are very gratifying. We doubt not that you will appreciate the merits of this work, which for support and patronage depends entirely upon its own intrinsic value, and as the great number of voluntary advance subscriptions already received renders necessary a considerable edition of the book, we should be greatly pleased if you would indicate the number of copies you desire (if one or more), in order that we may place a proper limit on the size of our introductory edition. You will note by the accompanying circular that the book has been placed at the low price of $2.75 per copy.

Please accept our thanks for the courtesy already extended to us in the matter of furnishing data.

A lady friend of Mrs. Blanchard and myself is a stockholder in the Mercantile Co-operative Bank, 132 East 23^d St. N.Y. only a few doors from your office.

I want to know if you, or one of your friends who understands these Banks will look into the matter, after reading the letters enclosed (Confidentially), and see what it all means. The lady who asks these questions is a widow, and bread winner for her little boy, and can't afford to keep up the assessment of 12.50 so often. Yet when it is needed to be withdrawn, somehow, the value is much less than when they are receiving assessments.

Will you kindly have a reliable person look into it & carefully report as to its standing & object. As you know any of the directors? May I have a very early reply.

Dear General Howard.

Although a little late to send the greetings of the season I wish you a very Happy New Year with much of prosperity and blessing to you and yours. I have followed with much interest your abundant labors with our armies in the South and in Cuba. May the results be great and enduring.

I desire to obtain your judgment of Mr. William Hauptman, now of New York and who wishes to be appointed to a field of work in North Dakota. He speaks of acquaintance with your self. I shall value your estimate of his efficiency as a minister and christian worker and your opinion of the kind of field he is best suited for.

With best wishes andx sincerest regards, I am,

Very truly yours.

Jan. 7, 1899.

My dear Gen. Howard

Your letters of Dec. 21st, 22nd, & 28th with enclosures as stated in each have been received, and the usual certificate has been forwarded direct to each donor. In a few instances donations have been sent direct to me, and in two or three cases they have been addressed to you at this place, and the checks payable to you. I have taken the authority to endorse your name on the checks, by me, thinking thus to save you the trouble, also the work of forwarding them to you. If this is not all right, let me know and I will hereafter send them to you for endorsement.

Our school is starting out at the beginning of this year with better prospects than ever. Several young men have come in, most of them depending on work to pay their way. We have ^{them} all comfortably located and will use every effort to care for them.

Sincerely Yours

Chas. F. Eager Secy.

My Dear Sir, Albany, N.Y.

We for some time have had you in mind, and a desire that you be with us at one of our Public Entertainments which we are holding each month on the 4th Friday at 8 P.M. — We usually have a variety of literary and musical pieces which fill the programme and find it a great help in keeping up the life in Old John St. We earnestly desire that you should be with us on Jan. 27th and give us a talk for at least 1/2 hour. 4 members of our Church and Epworth League went to the State Fair, one was in the 79th Reg. and is back with us, 2 are now in Cuba, one in Brooklyn N.Y.

Please let us know if you could favor us with your presence at this time.

I am very sincerely Yours

Dear Sir :—

Your letter of Dec. 31st recd.
I have called on Mr. H. A. Johnson and also seen our President
since reaching here.

What we wanted was for you to give our Local Union of 42 societies
of Christian Endeavor, an address.
There are so many calls for money however that our president does not believe we are able to pay the price, so,
if possible we will have to content ourselves with having you when you speak to the other organizations.

I am very respectfully yours
