Genl J. D. Howard,

My Dear Friend,

Yours of the 25th inst. finds me confined to the house with inflamed eyes. I do not know how soon I can get out.

I enclose check for one hundred dollars, as I realize how much you needed
to make the payment
to Mr. Smith.

I am sorry my friend Mr. Dodge "complained when he put down five hundred dollars", he ought rather to have rejoiced

that he had it to give.
Probably his income is fifty times mine which has been very small for a few years, but he is a noble man, and may have meant it for a joke.

Yours with esteem
Davies R. James.

my personal appreciation for his kindness, and saying that in the matter of the title I should be glad to change it for one he thought more suitable and assuring him of my gratitude for any suggestions.
I told him, though, that I thought the story too

quiet and simple for a very ambitious title.

You will notice I changed my address in the Contract. They made

Major Genl O Howard;

Honored Sir, I took the liberty some little time ago to send you a few lines; I hope they met with favor at your hand; I learn from Bro-Cummings that all are busy; and you particularly, "in the interest of an Institute for Colored People"; though encroaching upon your time, I send a few lines with this, which I wrote a few days since, thinking they might prove applicable in some way, to aid you in a minor manner, though they may not even thus be available; yet I send them with well wishes for you and your object! Some time Bro-Howard when you do get a little spare time, I should like a line from you; I would prize it highly!

yours for the Right

Bangor. Me.

"The Colored Troops Fought Nobly!" Rang forth the cheering word,
In time of Nation's peril; A Plaudit grand-conferred!
'Twas well endorsed by leaders, Who knew not how to yield;
And equal to Promotion! "Promotion on the Field!"

At each-and every trial We gave those heroes bred —
Though differing some in Color, They nobly, truly bled
For Country and its Banner! The good of Man — indeed:
They deeply loved "Old Glory"; As each and all concede.
Good Friends, we have a duty: One which we long have owed —
To Memory of this people, So long in earth's bitter load:
For at the Nation's calling They sprang to arms with zeal —
And to the Front stern pressing — "Fought nobly" — for her weal!
'T would be to Nation's Honor, To pay this debt we owe;
At least unto this People, Have ties the firmer grow:
We know the earnest Craving — For learning and its light;
Then let the call be answered! And leave a pathway bright.

Why not endow unto them In "Free and Happy Land" —
Some noble Institution In name of Knowledge grand;
Where seeking minds could enter — To quaff from Wisdom's Springs,
And gain by deeper study The joy that Knowledge brings?
We claim "Free Institutions", With "Free and Public Schools";
Then why withholding from them — As under other rules?
Give then this aid unto them: — That they the higher aim;
Receive thyself the Plaudit — "Ye did it in his name!"

FORM 2.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

My dear General:-

I thank you very much for your letter just received. I am sorry that the wording of your subject is not exactly in accordance with your ideas, still I am glad I put it "God in War" for I have had the pleasure of receiving a letter for you, and it seems to me that you can mould the subject into that proposed by yourself to the interest of the Society. Certainly his "Satanic Majesty has been permitted to interfere" and injure many of the servants of God in a most emphatic way, particularly with regard to the Medical Department which to my mind was very inefficient, there was altogether too much politics in this department. Appointments to important positions were made for political reasons and not on account of the efficiency of the medical man appointed.

With regard to editing and publishing of my Uncle Thomas' works I would say that I am very much obliged to you for taking the pains to interview the Century people. I am not surprised that they do not care to have it at the present time. One of the firm and editors of Mc Clures is a personal friend and patient of mine. I can talk freely with him about it and am glad you suggested this magazine.

Thanking you very kindly for your letter, I am,

Yours very respectfully,

Dictated.

My dear Sir;-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 26th inst. The Mr. Searles you refer to is not a relative, or if so, is a very distant relative. He is, as you doubtless know, through his marriage with Mrs. Mark Hopkins, since deceased, in the possession of a very large fortune, and would doubtless be able to help you out at this time with your University matter.

I regret to say that in view of the large number of engagements of this kind which I already have in hand, I am unable to contribute to your fund, notwithstanding I have every reason to believe that it is one of very great merit.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

My dear Sir:

Having received a reply from our executive committee at Cumberland Gap that I did not anticipate, I fear that the letter I wrote you the other day, if you have received it, might be misleading. As fast as I collected the monies for the Lincoln Memorial University I sent them to our Assistant Treasurer, Charles F. Eager, at Cumberland Gap. The executive committee, having the institution to run, used considerable of what I sent in for running expenses, so that the immediate payment that I can make is not so large as I had hoped. Again, I have on my books three one thousand dollar subscriptions which I regard as good as gold, but they are not paid in. Now, I have a prospect of raising the entire amount by patrons and paying you off within a few days. Will you have the kindness to send me a statement of the mortgage and the interest due up to date? And tell me, with this information, whether the "Columbia Finance & Trust Co. will so favor me as to allow me to pay sums as I get them, varying from $500 to $1000 and secure me against foreclosure till I can have time to do the work. I do not mean by this to ask for a day beyond what is absolutely necessary to pay off the whole amount, for that is my intention in the quickest possible time.

Please show this to your President, Mr. Cox, and oblige.

Dear General Howard

I am much gratified that you will be one of the pall bearers at my father's funeral. The others are Col. Michie, Col. Larned, Dr. Stinson, Mr. Macdonald, Mr. Buck and Mr. Cooper.

The train (D. & W. R. R.) leaves at 12 o'clock ^{Tuesday} from Christopher St. or Barclay St. ferry. You need only a ferry ticket as there will be a private car on the train, and if you will ask for Mr. Davies at the steps of the car in Hoboken

he will show you a seat.

The funeral occurs at the lunch hour and I have therefore made arrangements for lunch on the train.

The returning train leaves
