manifestation of ill-will. It was impossible to arouse personal antagonism in King Oscar, for he is a man whose character is above reproach. He and Queen and their sons are pious and philanthropic to a degree unusual in royal families. They have given many proofs of their devotion to the people, and of their concern for their welfare. But the Norwegians could not be conciliated, and their antagonism is now as bitter as ever. Evidently King Oscar is weary of the vain effort. He is now seventy years old and is

Honored & Dear Sir:

Could you inform me of any commanders in the late war, who are open to Chautauqua suggestions? We are anxious to give Patriotism a large place on our program this year. We could perhaps combine with several others & make consecutive dates. Good terms could be offered for a well known Officer. May I ask about yourself. Will it be possible for you to make us a proposition? Hoping to hear favorably from you

I remain,

Cordially yours

Dear Genl O O Howard

Mrs Wright wishes me to thank you very much for the book you so thoughtfully sent her. we have enjoyed reading it aloud to each other very much and trust God~~d~~ may spare you health and strength for many years to carry on your good work. I only regret that we cannot at present express our appreciation of your good work in something more substantial than mere words, but you have our hearty sympathy and prayers continually and trusting we may in some way in the future render further aid. I remain

Your well wisher

Dear Bro.

A young friend of mine, who heard you speak here very much wants your autograph but he thinks you may be so much burdened with such calls they can. I hope we will have no need -

Dear Sir,

On Tuesday, Feb. 21st, at 9³⁰ a.m. the exercises of this school in honor of Washington's Birthday will be held.

After consultation with Cpl. Henry A. Adams I take the liberty of inviting you to occasion and to deliver short address on the Father of his Country. Knowing the great interest and pleasure such an address by you would give to the children of this school, nine-tenths of whom are of foreign-born parentage, I sincerely hope that you will find it possible to attend. If another hour would be more convenient, I shall be pleased to arrange the time to suit your engagements.

Lincoln Memorial University Gentlemen:

We beg to submit for your consideration the following propositions for the raising of funds for the University.

We will publish a journal every three months, assuming all the labor and financial responsibility entailed by same; the matter in said journal shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

We will solicit, or cause to be solicited, advertisements for this publication, and fifty percent (50%) of the gross amount received from this source shall be turned over by us to such person as the Board of Directors may designate.

When advertisements are solicited, if donations are offered in lieu of same, we will accept such donations and turn them procure them, and in this event shall be remunerated by the proper authority on a basis of 25% for all amounts not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) Commission on larger sums to be agreed to hereafter.

We will, in order to procure a circulation for the journal, sell the same at 25¢ per copy, or $1.00 for the series, and will pay to proper person 20% of proceeds from such sales. On this point we wish to call your attention to the fact that we shall be obliged to employ canvassers to sell the book, and also be compelled to pay for the mailing.

We would also call your attention to the fact that reliable advertising solicitors cannot be secured at less than 30% on the business done, and as we cannot cover the territory without employing them, 50% on advertisements leaves us a small margin after expenses of publication are deducted.
