Genl. O. O. Harvard
Dear Sir, and brother, I know you will be interested in my work. I publish and edit a prohibition monthly. It gives sacrifice but herein is his best work. Recently a poor old soldier came down he had been in a saloon with his pension money and his cronies, the bartenders offered to keep his money for him and did. I made the paper that pay the money back (the saloons here fear me more than all else) Now I feel that God has set me a special mission to the old soldiers who is a drunkard.

had the blessed means means of the conversion of one a few weeks ago, as Bivas lecture in the country.

Brother Howard I want your co-operation to set in motion a plan by which old soldiers not competent to care for their money cannot get it but the G. A. R. become custodians to defray needful expenses. I want a prayer circle with special plea for the salvation of these men.

One noble Christian man here was in your command. & his name Howard is a synonym for the Christian life.

I am very poor, often without the needfuls of life, because I dare not sell my paper. I believe

It is afflicting me and I am being tested, surely some of God's 'Stewards' will give me a hand. My husband was in the 83rd Corps de Afrique a 1st Lt. he came home to die. He was with Banks & Butler's army of the Gulf. It seems to me I must just go after all the poor old broken soldiers and take them by force out of the way of the soloon.
I could have convicted the soloon keeper if I had had the money to employ counsel, and I was very ill, just coming down with pneumonia (for want of good underwear) I am up now, but still gasping for breath -
yours for vicarious
Mrs. A. Elmore

I could have counted the solomon deeper if I had had the mirror & myself even and was very ill just coming down with pneumonia
for want of good medicine.
Some of men, but still hoping for best.

My dear General Howard:

We are forming our plans for the Annual Meeting of this Society which is to be held, as you may already know, at Hartford, Ct. That we may avoid any conflict with Decoration Day appointments we have fixed our date as May 23rd-25th inclusive. I write at this time to give you these dates so that you may hold them for our use as we, of course, depend upon your being present and having a part in our meeting. The program has not yet been fully made up. When it is I will write you in detail of the proposed exercises. This is particularly to give you the date that it may be held among the many calls that you have.

Sincerely yours,

Your favour of recent date came duly at hand, and this is the first opportunity I had to reply. It would be a pleasure for us to help in the noble work you are engaged in, but ^{we} laid out this past fall nearly $10,000 on our Church and Mrs Dexter and myself are doing a great deal towards the same. Beside we are doing a great deal to help Worcester Academy, one of the best Schools in the country of its kind, and they need every dollar that I can spare at this time. Mrs Dexter enjoyed your call at our home very much and was highly pleased with the Book you sent her. for which she wishes to thank you very much with her kindest regards I am

March 17th 1899

Dear Genl. Howard:-

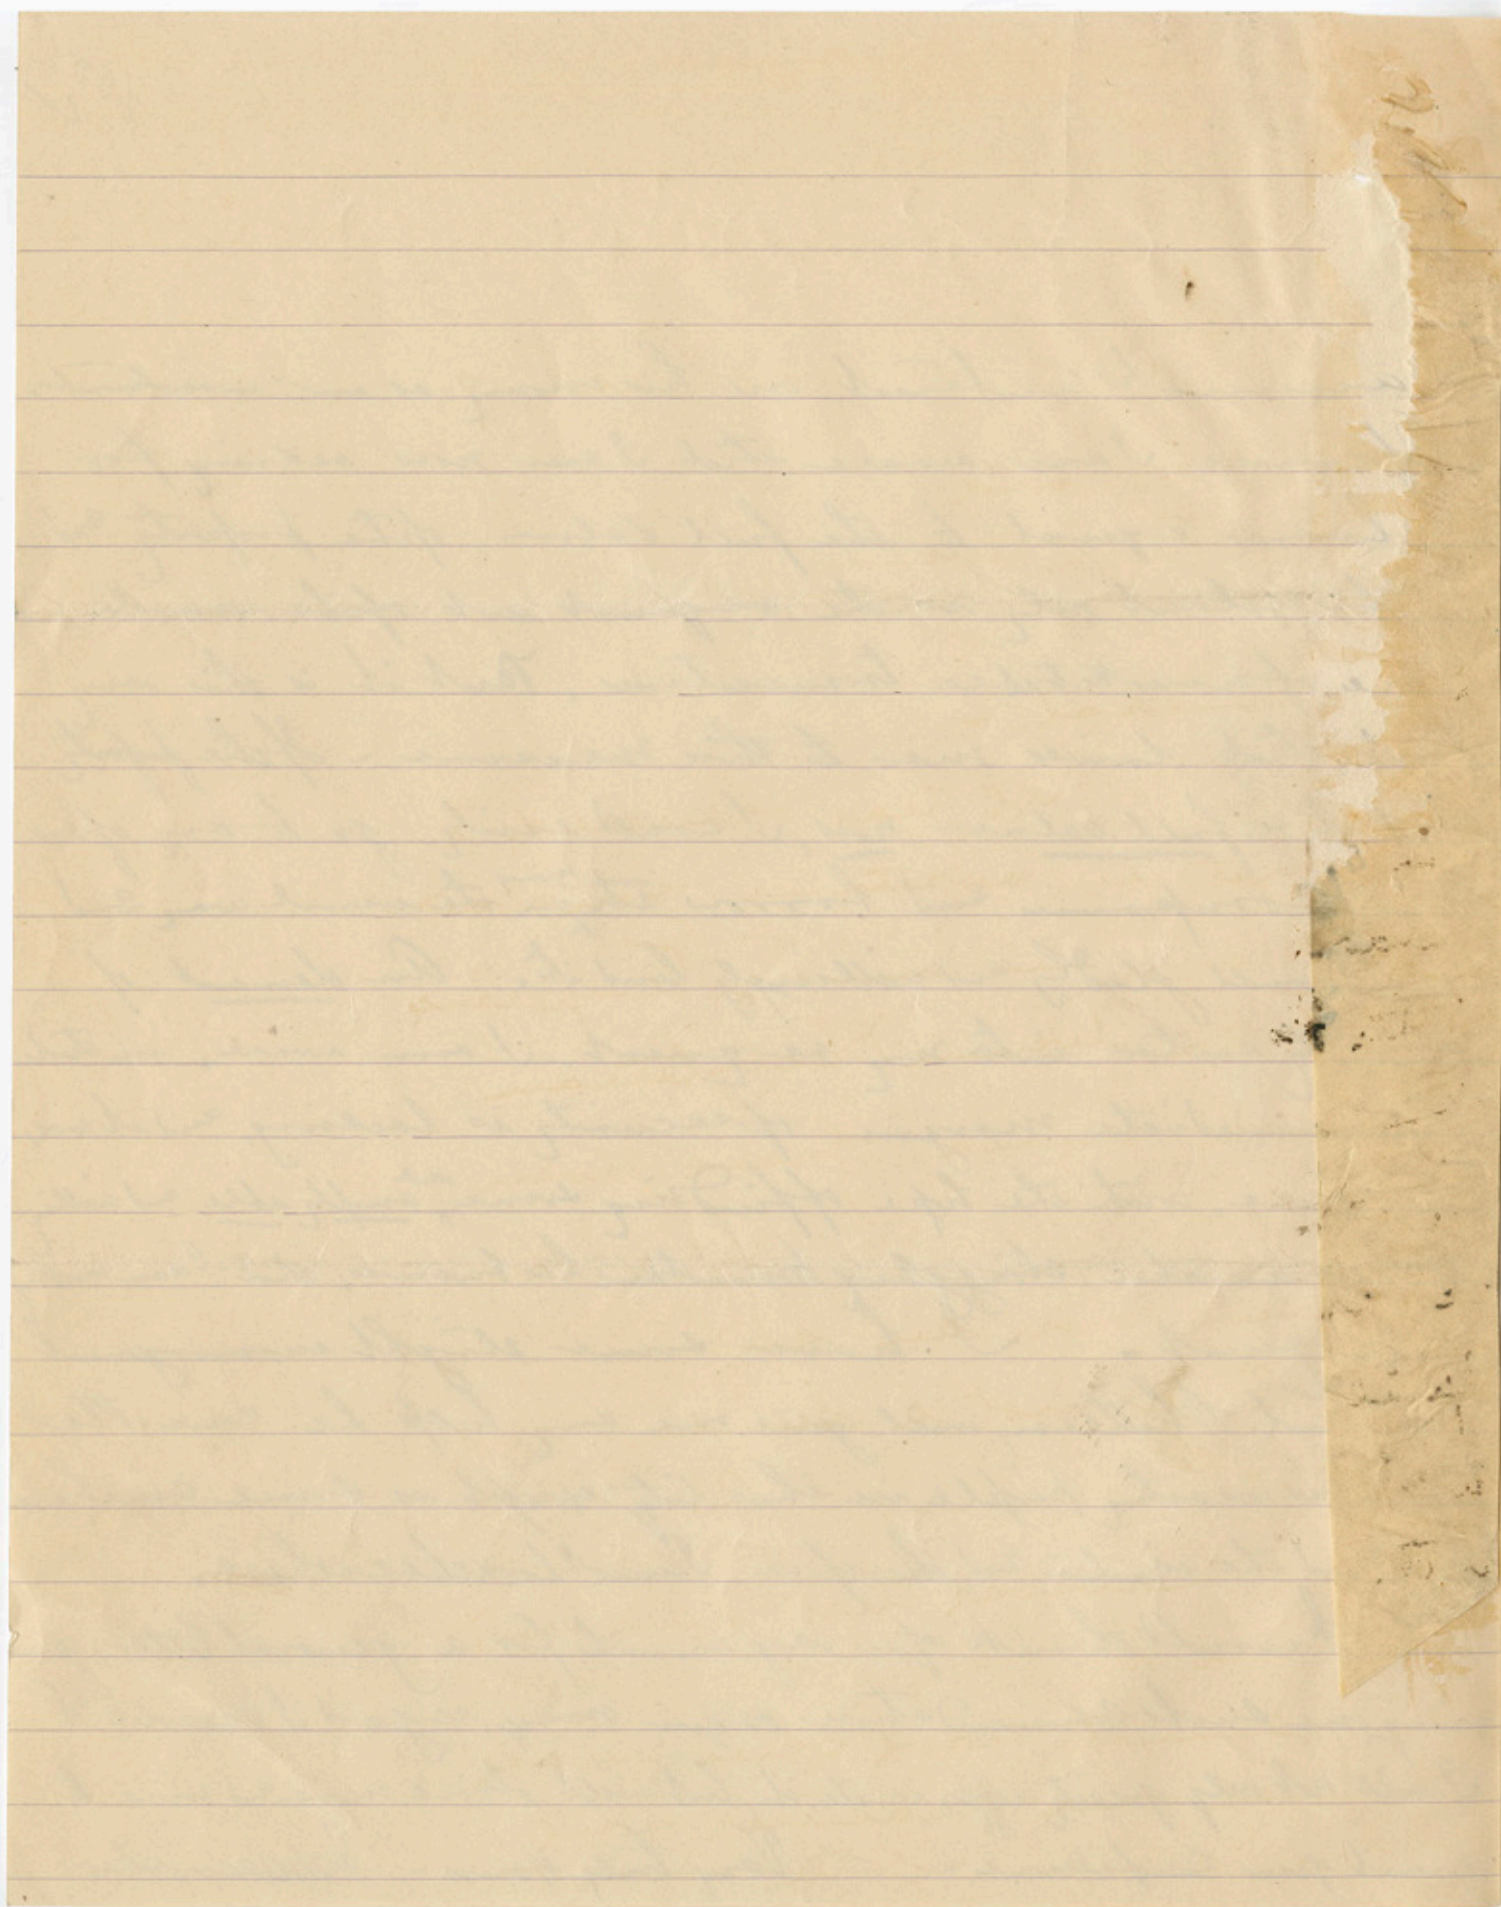

I write to thank you for your very excellent letter to me and also for the one you wrote Genl. Whittier in reference to my matter.

I have talked the subject with him and it may be that I ~~may~~ succeed in raising the necessary money to tide me over the present crisis, and, if I do, I will have you to thank for it. As I wrote you I am not asking a gift of the money, but simply that some one, able to do so, will lend it to me, at a low rate of interest, for a few years and accept my property as security for it, with the understanding that they will deed it back on my repaying the money. While this is a great accommodation to me - in reality my only hope to hold my business - it does not occur to me that my request is any other than a very reasonable one for any wealthy man to take hold of, with almost absolute assurance of doubling his money in 10 years, and at the same time receiving a semi-

- annual interest on his money as an investment. Of course I am aware that I am now asking for a loan equal to the full value of the property and to this extent only is the request out of the usual line of marketable transactions. But it is this very fact that drives me to this measure - If the property had it is full value now, I could easily go to any of our trust companies and borrow it ^{money} in the usual way and they would gladly and willingly lend it. An element of charity enters into my request, I am aware, in that the immediate margin of security is lacking, and it was, therefore, with the hope of finding some ^{one} amplly able and willing to help another, struggling to maintain his business, that I am making the request. I have some slight encouragement and Genl. Whittlesey will give me any help he can. We have no wealthy people in this City except as some come here to spend the winter and, therefore, I must look elsewhere.

I would thank you very much for a general letter, giving me such commendation as you may regard I deserve and I will not only greatly appreciate it, but will strive more and more to merit your confidence - Very truly yours - J. H. McInerney

Dear Friend:--

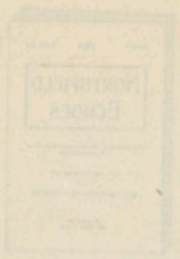

Your letter of the 16th to Mr. Moody has come to hand. He is at present in California, and is about to start for home. I am not sure of his present address, and the letter would hardly reach him anyway if forwarded, so I will keep it and give it to him when I meet him in Chicago in about two weeks' time.

Will Moody is at present with his father in California.

The last news we had from Major Whittle he was apparently gaining in health, as he was able to take walks. When he left Clifton Springs for the South he was unable to do this at all.

Dear Gen. Howard: Your letter of the 11th inst. recd. and read as requested. I am very sorry that any discontent among the teachers with some local and personal conditions has operated against the very commendable efforts you are making in behalf of the work here. I have no idea from what source the complaints have gone out from here, but this I feel sure, that no one purposed to go counter to your efforts. The table-board has not been satisfactory this year and the teachers whom the Institution are boarding desired a modification of existing conditions and this alone, I think, has been the source of the discontent.

We have had a nice year in our school work. The teachers in a christian spirit have performed their duties faithfully and well. I believe it is one of the most pleasant school years of my teaching experience. The young people are unusually responsive to any effort made in their behalf. I have done the best I could with what I have had to do with. To make the work more efficient a library and apparatus are needed.

We have succeeded in opening a reading room, but a good working library is almost indispensable especially in this school, where most of the homes represented have little or no good literature.

The enrollment and regularity of attendance have been encouraging this year and the future outlook so far as students are concerned, I think, is good.

Not knowing what my future relation to the work would be, I have not been able to develop some plans looking to the strengthening certain features of the school. I have tried all along to work within my proper sphere, trying to be neither presumptuous or neglectful in the performance of my duties.

Last summer we held the first Summer Normal of this section. The attendance was not as large as we hoped it would be, but all seemed to think it was very successful for the first one. Such a school is almost imperative and it surely will meet a long felt want. If rightly managed, it can be made to contribute much towards making this an educational center.

This year I thought if the Summer School was started early and get the cooperation of the Co. Supts. a well patronized and profitable session can be realized.

Pardon me, for thus intruding upon your private and busy moments,

We will try to close in May with a well rounded out year's work.

The teachers desire to be remembered to you and they send their well wishes for your abundant success.

Respectfully Yours,

year of this center. The attendance was not as large as we hoped it would be but all around I think it was very successful for the first year. Much work is ahead in almost every department and it surely will need a long

This year I thought if the business

Dear General:-

By the above address you will perceive where I am stationed at present. I belong to the Department of Matanzas was sent here to help inspect this town. There are three of us who go from house to house in company with the city physicians, we make a daily report to the commanding officer Maj. Dugan 10th Infantry. When the work is completed we will report to Col. Wilcox at Matanzas. Upon my arrival at Havana I went to Gen'l Brooks's Hdqrs.

and presented your letter, I did not see Gen'l. Brooke however.

The following day I was assigned by the chief surgeon to the Department of Matanzas, I said nothing, but went trusting that after I had served sufficient time here I might be transferred to Havana where all my friends and relatives are and where I could engage to better advantage in Christian work. I have been unable to do anything so far along that line, being kept constantly busy.

There is but one battalion here, the 10th U.S. Infantry.

I trust my dear General that you are enjoying your usual good health and that you are meeting with the success that you deserve in your efforts to put Lincoln Memorial University upon a good financial foundation. With kindest regards for yourself and family I am at ever,

Dear Mr. Pratt:

Your father and I had a conference a little while before his death. I think it was the second time I saw him that he gave me quite a lecture and said that from my standing and character he didn't know anybody better to consult with, with reference to doing the most effective work in the great Master's cause. He himself was meditating then a large investment in that direction. I had on hand a small thing - the Camp Memorial Church, which he aided; but he was meditating upon something larger and so in a Christian way chided me for undertaking small enterprises.

I have now put my shoulder to another wheel and I want you to talk with my friend and secretary, Mr. E. P. Fairchild, the bearer. It is possible that you may help me yourself when you see the largeness of the work, and advise my friend, who is the son of one of our best educators and who is heart and soul in this enterprise. Any help you may render, I will consider a double memorial not simply to Mr. Lincoln but to your good father and yourself.

My dear Sir:

You know I predicted at the time ~~that~~ I was so enthusiastically elected to the vice-Presidency that I would be overwhelmed other with work. Now I feel more convinced than ever that it is impossible considerable to give the time necessary to add any weight to the influence in favor in the new society of temperance, and I therefore resign the office, and ask you to as strong select some one who not only has an interest in the work but who can and will attend the meetings. General Swayne told me that he was seems in just the same position that I am. It ~~is~~ wrong to put up two officers like the General and myself who declare that they can be only figure-heads in the enterprise.

Having come to a solid conclusion, I rely upon my resignation being accepted by the executive committee, which was empowered to act in the premises.

Very truly yours,

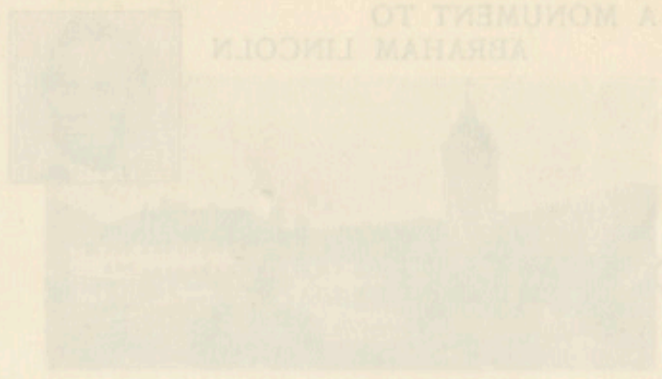

O. O. Howard
