Dear sir:-

At the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company, held on February 27th, 1899, the following Directors were elected for the ensuing year:

Geo. Y. Wallace,	Geo. M. Downey,	C. W. Lyman,
H. C. Hill,	A. Burt,	Thos. Sherwin,
W. S. McCornick,	Thos. Marshall,	C. F. Lloyd.

Full and detailed reports for the year 1898 were submitted. The affairs of the Company were found to be very satisfactory. Our receipts from earnings and the sale of Treasury stock in 1898 were $145,048.85; our expenditures for improvements and dividends were $180,399.46. The indebtedness of the Company on the 31st of December, 1898, was $116,448.84.

From the above it will be seen that we must make arrangements for more money. It is proposed to double the capital stock of this Company, and a special meeting of the Stockholders for that purpose has been called, to be held in the General Offices of the Company, in the Telephone Building, Salt Lake City, Utah, on April 12th, 1899. In case you cannot be present in person, will you please sign and return enclosed power of attorney, in favor of some one who will be present.

Should this measure carry, it is proposed to sell such an amount of the new stock as is needed, offering to the present shareholders the first right to purchase a portion of the increased stock, in proportion to their present holdings; the balance to remain in the Treasury. The proceeds of the sale of the increased stock to be used for paying present indebtedness and for new and needed extensions. The selling price contemplated is $60.00 per share. The Board thinks that in this manner sufficient money can be realized to provide for the money needed this year.

If any action is taken in this matter, it will be done at the special Stockholders meeting of April 12th. That we may know your wishes, will you please designate your pleasure on enclosed blanks, and return same to me at your earliest convenience.

From present indications we feel sure of our ability to continue present dividends, not only on the present stock, but on the proposed increase.

Yours truly,

Geo. Y. Wallace
President.

To the Honorable Secretary of the Interior,

Washington, D.C.

My dear Sir:-

For some time I have been told that the late slaves and their descendants who have been living in the Creek Nation, Indian Territory, have been left out and forgotten in the settlement of the land question until lately. Now that the allotments are being made and that there is likelihood of the freedmen having something, Bishop Derrick desires very much to retain for the agricultural school- (the Sisson Industrial School)- a quarter-section, that is, the amount that has been previously guaranteed by the Creek law and by positive promise. I think a little influence from your department or from the Indian Bureau, if you work through that bureau, will be sufficient for protection. The Bishop's wish has been brought to me by the President G.A.L. Dykes, of the Sisson Industrial School, and my influence entreated. This is a matter of so much importance to Choska and Musko-gee that I think it will commend itself to your judgment.

My dear General:-

I have your esteemed favor of the 18th of March. I regret exceedingly that I had retired when you called at the Club a few evenings since. I had not had any sleep for several nights and hence my reason for retiring so early.

Referring to your suggestion to set aside one million dollars for the purposes mentioned, I desire to state that nothing would afford me greater pleasure, were I able to do so. I can better describe my financial condition by quoting an error made by my stenographer some few years ago. I used the expression: "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak". When the letter was written, I found that it read: "The spirit is willing but the cash is weak."

My enterprises in the Western country have been on a very large scale, and my obligations, therefore, were very large when the Indian mints closed, and the price of silver fell to about the present price. This necessitated almost the closing down of silver mines which constituted a large bulk of my assets, and therefore, deprived me of most of my revenues. My liabilities were very large and I have had my hands full during the past five years to meet them and keep everything going, and it will be several years, I fear, before I shall be in a condition to make donations such as I have made in the past when I had plenty of ready money. The future looks very much brighter for me now, and I can assure you that if the times ever comes when I can assist in such a noble and worthy charity as you mention, I shall only be too glad to do so.

With kind regards, I remain

Dear General:.. There are no words through which I can express my feeling of thankfulness for your letter which reached me Saturday. I think I can fully understand the spirit that prompted that letter - May God bless you for it - I read it all to Leon. over and over again have I asked him to be careful - not to risk so much. That confident spirit - that fearlessness and contempt of danger is a legacy that at times makes me shudder. When at his age I was in the army. In those movements which are the pride and boast of athletes I was like a squirrel - Danger had no terrors for me. I often tell him that I would not for the world have him have my experience - I now know its dangers and the risks - the terrible consequences. Because I feel that these things I see in him are but reproductions of myself I try to be patient and hopeful. I seek to control him and advise him. It is his ambition to go into the Y.M.C.A. work as physical instructor and is now receiving instruction to that end.

I do thank you for your kind letter and its helpful testimony. When I read it to Leon he seemed to appreciate it - and I am sure he felt down in his heart the noble spirit of the man that wrote it for his good.

The slipping on the horizontal bar was not a slip of the feet as it seemed - but the hand pads broke and clung to the bar so that when he attempted to make the forward somersault from the bar his hand was caught and it drew him back and he gathered himself for a fall. We are very careful in our work. Moran who stood by the bar had his hand under his chest before Leon reached the floor, so breaking the force of the fall.
We allow no exercises on this bar without some one ready to catch any one falling.
Leon repeated in his next move on Thursday night just what he had 173 attempted to do when he made the full-Horner - The idea is - Carefulness, no risks - I tell Leon that Athletics are good for the development of a strong physique. Acrobatics interesting, but do not make a man a blessing to his fellow men. But you know how an 18 year old boy reasons - Some day he will look back and wonder why many years ago he did not look forward, but simply lived in the present.

We are now arranging for our 40th Anniversary of the organization of Camp Church - It takes place on the 3rd Sunday of April - April 16th I think you have it on your list. We want you for that day all day after 2:30 P.M.
 I shall try to have every body there that I can to help and make the day an red letter day in our history.

God bless you and fill you more and more with Himself.

Your letter of Dec 23rd regarding Sub: to Lincoln University has not been without attention although you have not heard from me sooner and indeed any communication from you - whom we all respect so much - deserves careful consideration.

We have tried to see if there was find it impossible.

it was very much needed; we have hired a Chapel and this School has become financially responsible for its support, so that ^{you} can easily see our hands are full as it takes all our

It is a pretty big undertaking for a small, young, School like ours but its need impressed us so much that we were forced to undertake it & I am very glad to see that its influence for good is already felt although it is not yet 3 months since we started.

to discuss, on the evening of May 17th next, the sub-

As a member of the Executive Committee of the Club, I have been requested to ask you if it would be possible to secure the presence among us, on that occasion, of Gen. Wesley Merritt and to have the honor of listening to a few words from him on that subject, as it would appear to him from his residence in the Philippine Islands.

We have understood that General Merritt is, at present, stationed in New York; and we hope that, through your instrumentality, he might be secured as one of the speakers of the evening.

In such an event could you say whether he would be willing to receive any remuneration for coming?

I have been instructed to say that, if he thought it worth his while, we could pay $25- at his disposition.

This would, of course, be considered not in any sense as an adequate payment for the message he might bring us; but simply as a

I was disappointed in not receiving from you any message bearing directly on our Christian Endeavor peace memorial. We should hardly care to quote, as applying to that memorial, an article in the Christian Herald that had no reference to it. If you care to write us a few words, just two or three sentences, they will have great weight, and will be very much appreciated by our readers.

I have received your letter in regard to further mention of the Lincoln Memorial University. As you know, we have already mentioned the university at some length, and I am not sure how much more space we can give to it; but I will bring the matter up at the next meeting of our editorial board and see what the other editors think of further mention. Our paper, on account of the interdenominational relations of the Christian Endeavor movement, has to be very careful in publishing appeals for money outside of those that come from the denominational mission boards. You understand, I am sure, the position in which we are placed.

Very cordially yours,

Amos R. Wells

As you know, we have already mentioned the university at some length, and I am not sure how much more space we can give to it; but I will bring the matter up at the next meeting of our editorial board and see what the other editors think of further mention. Our paper, on account of the interdenominational relations of the Christian Endeavor movement, has to be very careful in publishing appeals for money outside of those that come from the denominational mission boards. You understand, I am sure, the position in which we are placed.

Very cordially yours,

My dear General Howard: -

We regret to learn, as we do from your letter of March 17th that you contemplate resigning the Presidency of our Society, at our next Annual Meeting.

When you spoke of it to me at Camp Memorial Chapel on Thursday evening last, I hoped that it was not with any serious intention on your part.

I have, however, communicated to Dr. Clark the fact that you are meditating this step; and if you feel it necessary for you to take it, we sincerely trust someone may be found who can fill your place, and render the Society the service which you have always so cordially given.

Sincerely yours,

New York City.

My dear General:

I am very glad to hear, as we do from your letter of March 11th, that you are continuing your interest in the work of the Society.

At our last Annual Meeting, when you spoke of it to me at Camp (Central) Island on Thursday evening last, I hoped that it was not with any intention of leaving me behind.

I have, however, communicated to Mr. Clark the fact that you are continuing your work; and if you find it necessary for you to take it, as it were, with you, we will be glad to have you in your place, but we hope the Society will be able to have you in exactly the same way.

Sincerely yours,

William Brewster

The order of exercises will be somewhat as follows: First, there will be the usual morning opening exercises, consisting of a selection of Scripture, the Lord's Prayer chanted by the school, and then a hymn. Then the III. Juniors will march to the front of room and give their pledge to the flag. And afterward Mademoiselle Veltin

142 East 36th Street.

My dear General Howard, A carriage will call for you at half-past eight o'clock on Friday morning, the 24th, to bring you to the Veltin School, 160 West 74th Street, and the carriage will be in waiting to carry you home after we have had the pleasant visit from you. Please say nothing to the driver about any settlement, as he knows beforehand that that matter is all attended to.

The pupils, whom you will address, are of all ages from the little children to the young ladies of seventeen and eighteen about to graduate.

The III. Juniors, who are the "patronesses" of this pleasure before us, are full of enthusiasm, and are eagerly looking forward to hearing you tell of the Civil War experiences and of the prominent men of that time, whom you knew so well. This secret of theirs will not be made known to the school till just before you come.

will introduce you to the School, and will you kindly talk to us for half an hour, and then we will end with the Star Spangled Banner.

If you can spare a few moments afterwards, the III. Juniors (seventeen little girls of twelve & thirteen) would esteem it a great privilege to be introduced to you.
They are the only class who will have this privilege.

I do hope that Mr.
Howard will be able to come with you.

With kind regards to yourself and Mr. Howard.

Very sincerely yours,

Miss B. Blanchard.

O. O. Howard,

Dear Genl.,

I hope you haven't forgotten the six boys who "tackled" you in the Archer House the morning after your lecture and asked you for an autograph piece.

We have had snow here since the Tuesday before Thanksgiving Day. There has been slighting all but two weeks of that time or about one hundred and thirty days.

I remember of seeing an article in the paper at the beginning of the war saying that you would enlist if the country needed you.

After the war was over they raised a militia company here. I went to see them drill one night. My school teacher's intended husband is captain of the company.

Last night Murat Halstead lectured on the Phillips. I got his autograph this morning and I wondered if you were ac-tainted with him as he was a war correspondent in 1861-65.

He said that he saw a blacksmith's shop near San Francisco with "Deweyville" painted over the door. This was the name of the new town.

He said that he told Dewey how he was respected and admired in the United States.

Hoping you will answer me soon

I am

Yours Truly

Piercy Farley.

Dear General Howard:

A grave difference of opinion has been developed on a point of vital importance to the military efficiency of the University: certain members of the board of trustees say that men should be promoted according to their class rank, regardless of their military standing or aptitude: one goes so far as to say that "the regulations should be talked over with 'the boys' and when we have found out what they will submit to, then made accordingly": another says that "there should be no more restriction put on our students than at other colleges": &c. A determined effort is being made to force me to accede to this radical platform, and I therefore intend to place the matter directly before the Board at its meeting next Wednesday (at 10.30 a.m.) for their decision. When ideas are advanced that "the military must give way to the civil" and that "it does not matter whether the best scholar has aptitude or not, he must have the best office," for "the boys wouldn't mind that so long as he got his place in accordance with the rule", it seems to me that it is time to find out whether this is, or is not, to be a military institution. If the board should decide that they want the name without the thing itself, they will have to find some one else to do it for them, for I can not consent to administer their affairs in a manner which I conceive would be contrary to the charter, which requires as the first thing to be maintained, a course of military instruction both theoretical and practical.

I wish that it were possible for you to be present at that meeting to give your opinion on the subject: if this can not be (as I suppose it can not) I hope you will give me your views at length, whatever they may be: and also that you will send your proxy either to me or to Dr. Nichols, to be used as you direct in your letter in reply to this.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Gen. Howard,

Your letter of the 17th, at hand. The two small tracts of land owned by the Harrogate Land Co. to which Mr. Kehr had called your attention are the same that I referred to in my ~~last~~ letter to you March 6th,. I also enclosed in my letter of that date a copy of a letter from Mr. Henry L. Underwood, manager of the ~~Harrox~~ Harrogate Land Co. If you will refer to this letter you will notice that he says " Since such a long time has elapsed and the University did not see fit to embrace the opportunity then offered" 4c. As soon as we receive their reply I will inform you what terms they offer at once.

It is quite important that we secure these tracts. Everything is moving along smoothly at this end and we trust you are still succeeding well there.

P. S. What do you think about having some insurance placed on the Sanitarium and barn? say $10,000.00 to $12,000.00 .

If you will ascertain at what rate it can be written there, I will confer with the agencies here and at Knoxville.

Gen. O. O. Howard:

My dear General,

I thank you for your kind letter of March 18th. I am always glad to hear of the great and good works which you always have in hand and of the wisdom and energy with which you carry them on towards completion. I should be delighted to join with you in contributing to the success of the enterprise which you commend to my attention in your letter. But I am no longer receiving a salary as pastor and my income from other sources has been so greatly reduced by the failure of investments that I can with difficulty collect enough to meet the personal expenses of myself and of those who are dependent on me for support.

Hoping and praying that you may long live to serve and bless the country which you did so much to save by your patriotism and valor and that your kind and courteous appeal may receive from others a more generous answer than I am able to give,

I am very respectfully and sincerely yours,

Daniel Marsh.
