Dear Sir: - Being seventeen years old I am naturally very much interested in our Army & Navy, especially at the present time, so have started a collection of autographs of our Army & Navy officers, & write so kindly ask you for yours to add to my collection.
If it would not be imposing upon you

I would kindly ask you for one of your photographs providing it does not embarrass you, and that you can spare me one, which I would prize very highly.

Awaiting a favorable reply, while thanking
you in advance,

I remain
Respectfully yours

My Dear Gen. Howard:-

Your telegram came to hand yesterday. We will give you $15 and your railroad fare from Burlington to Kingston and return. Dr. J. G. VanSlyke, will entertain you while in this city. We are anxious that the speakers at our anniversary, shall present to the people of this city, a statement of the present condition of this work, and of the work accomplished by the association, during the past year. I will prepare a brief statement of facts, and mail them to you the first of the week.

Trusting that the Lord will make your coming a blessing to our work, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear General

I have been hoping to see You or at least to hear from You. as to your trip to Adams with your son. How did you enjoy it? Please tell me all about it; and if you went to Dalton saw Lt. Gen. Brane.

I was in Washington last week.
Saw the President, Secy. Lorge, Keogh, as well as Gen. Shaulding my superior officer. Regretted you were not in N.Y.
Hon. Luman Pratt tells me he did not have a note from you. How is this? The Rev. A. A. paper printed Fairchild's letter. Write me. Wm. S. S. Shaulding

I saw General Phillips at Brooklyn Navy Yard.

I have been hoping to see you at least a year from now as to your trip to Europe with your car. I am sure you
about it; and if you want to better than at our home.
I am in Washington last week I am the President's special representative as well as our Ambassador to England officer. I am sure that you will not have a more pleasant trip than this one.

Gen. O. O. Howard,

My dear Sir,

Mrs Van Slyke and

I wish to have the privilege of caring for you, in our home, on the occasion of your coming to

Kingston, next Saturday.

If you will name to me, your hour of arrival at

The "West Shore" Station, I will try to meet you. In any event, a "Colonial City" car will bring you directly to my front door - only let it be one going up town -

Our Y. M. C. A. is much gratified at the prospect of having you to speak for them, in my Church, next Sunday evening -

Very sincerely yours

My dear General:

This morning I took a liberty which I hope will not inconvenience you. I gave your name to Mr. J. O. Wetherbee of Boston, in whose lumber office I wish to enter, as one who I believed would give him a satisfactory statement as to my character and honesty. I also mentioned names of former employers. It was just too late to give Col. Hawards name as he is just about to leave for Manila, we hear. Will you kindly mention if you should write that I was in

My dear General:

This morning I took a liberty which I hope will not inconvenience you. I gave your name to Mr. F. O. Webster of Boston, a tobacco chandler of I wish to state, as one who I believed would give him a satisfactory statement as to my character and honesty. I also mentioned names of former un-give Col. Howard's name as he is just about to leave for Manila, we hear. Will you kindly mention if you should write that I was in his employ at on time (at H. Ethan Allen) and maintained a standing for character and honesty.

I hope this will not be a great inconvenience and I hope that you will make use of me here in Boston if ever an opportunity should come up.

Mother has been very ill since my Uncle's death, but she is better now. She and my aunt join me in kindest regards to you all. We understand that Harry is about graduating at the Law College and wish him every success. I hope you are in
