

My dear General:--

Dec. 1899

21/9

I had hoped to see you before you returned. I called at No. 1 Broadway last Saturday, but at a time when you were not in. I hope you will find some checks for your articles. I have heard from them all except the one on the Boer War which I sent to The World. Perhaps they have communicated with you. I will send some more subjects in a few days. I read your "Elements of Success" in the Saturday Evening Post with a great deal of benefit. Some more just like that will go.

Mr. Camp has finally consented to let me off this week and I would like to go Friday for a few days. If no one is going to use the Penn. R.R. pass I would like to take <sup>it</sup> and promise to return it immediately. Do you expect to come down to the city for the winter?

I have got my entrance into the Green family. I am going to call on her brother who lives at 91 Park Avenue on next Friday. He learned that I was in the city and sent for me. He was a great friend of my father to whom he gave considerable money to start schools in India. He was a co-operator with the famous ~~Quigg~~ anti-Quigg party. I shall bear L. M. U. in mind and try to have you connect with him and then with his sister. Must close now with regards to all the members of the family I remain

Very sincerely yours,

William C. Howland

My dear General:-

A few more details have been received from my son concerning Gen.
Guy Howard's death. They are certainly very melancholy
and have cast a terrible gloom over the poor boys days. who has been in the hospital twice, and nearly

did from blood poison -

I thought, however, that anything concerning your sons last-moments or his effects, papers
etc. - would be of interest to you - also Chamberlain's condition - and to his family -

Trusting you are bearing up bravely under this terrible blow which has come so suddenly upon you - and that you and yours are well -

I am, most sincerely

My dear General!

Since I received your kind letter I have been mostly absent from the City, and I therefore beg you will excuse not having answered it before. I have read with a great deal of interest of the good work you and your associates are doing and am exceedingly sorry not being able to assist you financially.

During the last few years I have had a great deal of ill luck, among others by misplaced confidence in an employee who had been with me for a dozen years and who caused me a loss of over thirty thousand Dollars, and compelled me to become a large borrower from the banks for my private as well as my business interests.

Hoping that you have overcome the difficulties in your generous enterprise

Dear General

Your letter of yesterday received. Words cannot express my surprise as well as annoyance since we have gone so far in incorporating our Co. I called up Mr. Danforth by long distance phone and read him your letter. He will write you tonight. What can be the matter? I wish you had written more fully and explained.

Col. Adams' actions also more than surprise me, he has not yet cashed my order from you to him for $300. saying there was no money in Bank to credit of Lincoln Men University, he well knows this is no interest at issue, your letter written me from St. Louis in which you said see enclosed slip which no doubt had reference to the friend you referred to in your letter who was in trouble, Can it be Col. Adams? (The slip you forgot to enclose) I asked him what had become of the <sup>check</sup> Carnegie, he said it was in bank. You must have

My dear Genl

We are very much rejoiced to hear of the debt being lifted and also that we have a press coming. There are many things I could write about this morning but suffice it to say - Everything is improving. Mr. Myers expected. He must work himself out.

I think your printed announcement troubled him as much as anything.
Hammogate Inn has been bought by Mr & Mrs. Kettletone for orphanage. They are fine Christian people you must meet some day. They have simply been led by Dr. Lansing.
I had a long and very satisfactory conference with them. They will be here in the spring and I think by that time they will see it clear

2

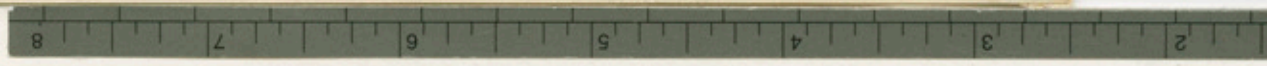

to connect closely with S. M. C. 194
I am pushing to get in to Mantle Hall. Shall open the School of Praction there Jan 2, 1900
if nothing prevents.

The Brookside affair I have left to Mr. Myers. He will get tired of his peculiar work there soon. When he does I will clean it up as well as possible. I will not trouble you with details in the matter now.

Miss Andrews has left. This closes a most trying affair. It is settled agreeably to all concerned.
The teachers who would not speak to her when I came gave her a good testimonial, which I dictated and all signed and they bade her good bye in a Christian spirit.
A sweet spirit now rules and may the Devil keep far away from Harnes School the balance of the year at least. We often think of you and pray for you.
Mrs. L joins me in kindest regards.
Yours fraternally,

Boston - Dec. 4th 1899 } 29 Oliver St.

Dear Mr Danforth:

No check has come to me from Mr Andrew Carnegie yet; and I have not been informed by Col. Adams that he <sup>has</sup> received the amount of Mr Carnegie's subscription. You know perhaps that I took my family to Omaha to bring our son Col. Guy Howard, killed in Serbia. & only reached my home here last Saturday night. Mr Miller & I had a difference of understanding not concerning the commission but concerning the amount. I had told him that I should charge him one half of it in case I had to go myself & plead the case with a hope for donor. Carnegie was exactly such case. We agreed to plead our views before Col. Adams & abide his decision.

I have not written Carl Adams about the matter. You will be paid at once in every case.

I have worked very hard to keep Mr
Miller, & shall continue to do so; but if ya or he call me in to plead with a prospective donor you cannot expect me to pay, as managing-director, the full commission. You &
be an welcome to my name & letters & circulars.

Very truly yours

O. O. Howard

P.S. Another matter. I find that I cannot accept the Presidency of your Company, which you so kindly offered me. Some complications here have come up that will prevent it; so please substitute some one else. This will be better too in view of our relationship <sup>in matters</sup> concerning the Lincoln

Dear General,

I have your letter of the 3d inst., and note what you say. I think you are very wise indeed in not accepting the Presidency of the National Press Bureau. I fear that the enthusiasm and indiscretion of parties who may be connected with the organization might involve you in some embarrassment. I congratulate you on the course you have followed in regard to this matter.

Will you kindly give my best wishes to Mrs. Howard and Bessie, indeed to your entire family.

Mr. Miller called this morning, and wanted $400. or $500. commission on the contribution made by Mr. Carnegie, which I supposed was entirely due to your own visit and solicitation. I feel extremely certain that no one has had any influence with Mr. Carnegie except your own personal standing and the regard entertained for you by Mr. Carnegie together with the ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ cause you represent. Mr. Miller also informs me that he is to have 20% on all of the subscriptions which are obtainable, with which he has anything to do. It seems to me that he must be mistaken in this. However, you have doubtless some understanding with him, and I trust that it is in writing. I shall be very glad indeed to see you. I shall see Mr. Huntington and ask if he will not contribute the $1,000 for which I put his name down last Spring.

With my best wishes for your health and happiness, believe me, dear General.

Yours very truly,

H. Adams

All the same, will you not use my office and the desk I have put aside for your use, instead of using the one in Mr. Miller's office in as much as you are not to be connected with that institution.

My dear Sir:- You will pardon the delay in writing you regarding the date I had hoped to arrange for you in Rochester during this campaign. I had hoped that I could be released from the N. Y. campaign so as to be on hand for the fight in Rochester, but this arrangement could not be made, so that I have decided to take up some of the dates for meetings at home. The cost of having you for such an address for a free meeting would make it neccexssary for me to be at home to take care of the offering and handle the meeting. I will want you later if the arrangement can be made.

Very respectfully yours,

FROM THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT.

SECTION 1. The object of this organization shall be—to agitate this question; to create a strong public sentiment against the saloon; to awaken the Christian citizenship of Rochester to strike for its entire Prohibition.

SECTION 2. We believe that the principle of license is contrary to the spirit of the Constitution of the United States; and contrary to the teaching of the Word of God; and, therefore, we are unalterably opposed to it.

SECTION 3. The saloon is a crime against the State; a crime against humanity; and a crime against God, * * * and this association stands for nothing short of its entire extermination.

WATCH-WORD:

"IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST AS KING, THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC MUST DIE."

The Rochester Prohibition Union of Christian Men.

Treasurer, JAMES H. SAGER.

IMPORTANT.

The Prohibition Union of Christian men is not a political organization. It is not allied to any political party. It will not endorse any candidates for public office. It is composed of men of all parties. Its purpose is to get together into an organization, Christian men of all creeds and parties who believe the saloon is a bad thing and ought to go.

It recognizes that this can be secured only through political action. It aims to make suppression of the saloon of first concern to the Christian citizen, reserving to each member the right to decide for himself through what party this may best be secured.

We propose to keep up an everlasting agitation for the suppression of the public licensed saloon.

The Prohibition Union of Christian Men was organized in Rochester, N. Y., 18 months ago. What it has accomplished in a city of 200,000 population:

It has united the enemies of the liquor traffic without regard to religious faith or party creed.

It has spent over two thousand dollars in holding mass meetings that have been supported by the people—because we reached the people.

It has become the greatest single moral force in the city.

It has created new sentiment against the saloon, and revived the old to enthusiasm and new hope.

It has turned away many people from the largest churches and public halls—unable to find room at a meeting where was displayed in huge types our watchword: "In the name of Jesus Christ, as King, the liquor traffic must die."

It has compelled the Police Department to enforce the Sunday law and suppress the Concert Saloon.

It has sown the city with short, striking documents that have vastly improved the home life of the people and damaged the saloon, Now!

It has not lowered the standard. We believe, under God, that it is the coming

We have just returned from Omaha where we laid to rest Guy's remains in Prospect Hill Cemetery. Six of my immediate family, Mrs. Guy Howard and the two children stood by the grave as Bishop Williams completed the final ceremonial service. We then stepped back to let the soldiers of the 10th Infantry fire their three volleys and the bugler blow his final requiem. Old soldier as I am, I felt for the moment as if I would liked to have been in front of the rifles had they been charged with bullet. But I am heeding the last words which he uttered "What ever happens, keep the launch going!" and so am devoting myself to what I regard as my last work.
