

HENRY BESTON, author, squire of Nobleboro, gently and thoughtfully penetrating yet disciplined in word and method, blending charm and sensitivity together with style and character; his conversion from The Outermost House of Cape Cod to the White Pine and Blue Water of Maine so well documented from his own Northern Farm: “He who would live happily in the country must be wisely prepared to take great pleasure in little things.”
Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS