

ADRIEL ULMER BIRD, of the Class of 1916, Overseer of the College from 1939 until his greatly lamented death last April; sagacious and able businessman, human, impulsive, and generous, never happier than in doing kind, unknown deeds for others especially where there were Bowdoin connections; given by unanimous vote of the two Governing Boards the rare honor of a posthumous award.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS