

GEORGE TEMPLE BOWDOIN, of New York City, who on this important anniversary – the 150th year of the opening of the College – represents today by family ties the Bowdoin whose name he bears, whose portraits adorn the walls of our Art Museum, and whose character and ideals have been an important part of our history since the days when it was decided to name the unborn institution after Governor Bowdoin.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS