

CHARLES AUSTIN CARY, of the Class of 1910, magna cum laude, of Wilmington, Delaware, Overseer of the College, son, nephew, father of Bowdoin men whose father also an Overseer received the same honorary degree on this fortieth anniversary; Vice President and member of the Executive Committee of the DuPont Company, combining his Bowdoin education and his excellent training at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to make him a most efficient and liberal business executive; like his father and uncle “devoting much of his time to the services of Bowdoin.”

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS