

JOSEPH BENJAMIN CHAPLIN, Principal of the Bangor High School, outstanding exemplar of the sturdy fiber of Maine stock, the quality of Maine schooling, and the opportunities Maine offers her able sons. His professional ability and the high esteem of his colleagues have been manifested by his presidency of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. In today's uncritical attack on American free public education, a social experiment among the largest ever attempted by any nation, it is fitting that Bowdoin as the father of many men who have devoted themselves to arduous careers in teaching, should pay homage to a teacher of long standing, an administrator of an outstanding high school, and a man who upholds high standards for youth in our State.
