

HUGH JOSEPH CHISHOLM, graduate of Yale College and Harvard Law School, enlightened industrialist, patron of Bowdoin, member of a family long friendly to the College, son of an honorary alumnus. With great success and distinction, he has continued pioneering, as his father before him, in an industry that is a bulwark to the economy of Maine. Despite the heavy demands made upon his time and energy by far-reaching enterprises, his unfailing devotion to his native State and its progress has helped in many ways with the trying problems Maine faces today, and contributed to its industrial development as well as enriching the lives of its people.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
