

Bowdoin College

Commencement 1979

LEONARD WOLSEY CRONKHITE, JR., of the Class of 1941, cum laude; Doctor of Medicine of Harvard University; President of the Medical College of Wisconsin; whose achievements in a far-reaching range of pursuits have revealed an intellectually inquisitive mind; his personal standards of quality and excellence have brought deserved recognition for his contributions to education, medicine, business and the military; his dedication to his College is documented by his unselfish sharing in its interests; he represents the best that Bowdoin sends out into the world.

Honoris Causa, Doctor of Laws