

LUTHER DANA, of the Class of 1903, of the State of Maine and a famous Bowdoin family, indefatigable worker on behalf of boys, peculiarly able to understand them, helper of many who otherwise would not have attended College, always interested in the whole man, civic leader, public spirited, withal modest; active on behalf of Bowdoin College since his graduation fifty years ago, an Overseer for more than a quarter of a century.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS