

ARTHUR HOBSON DEAN, Chairman of the United States Delegation to the Conference on the Discontinuance of Nuclear Weapons Tests in Geneva, senior partner of an enterprise which has become an institution, specialist in international law, throughout your vigorous and productive life you have put service above self, whether in the interests of you clients, your colleagues, or your country. Your locales have ranged in name and nature from Cornell to Korea, and from Piping Rock to Panmunjom. Perceptive, patient, and persuasive in international negotiation fraught with insuperable complexities and exasperations, your efforts have placed us in debt to you as a vigorous spokesman for the free world.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
