

JOHN WILLIAM FROST, of the Class of 1904, cum laude, of Pleasantville, New York, and Topsham, descendant of seafarers, his own feet firmly on the ground, lover of Maine, his life modeling the high principles expressed by Elijah Kellogg; cited for gallantry in action in the first World War, this recognition only anticipating the exceptional energy and zeal to be displayed in later life as a diligent lawyer and unselfish civic leader, as an Overseer of the College for more than twenty years, and President of the Board of Overseers since 1949.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
