

ALFRED EVERETT GRAY, Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude of the Class of 1914; soldier in the First World War, long a teacher in Milton Academy which, like Bowdoin, was founded in the eighteenth century by a group of citizens desiring for their children the advantages of valid education in an atmosphere of democratic simplicity. Looking to men like him, who epitomize the nobler virtues of the teaching profession, we perceive its strength in time of strain and stress, and recognize the man and his class on its fortieth anniversary.
