

Bowdoin College

Commencement 1979

VINCENT LEE McKUSICK, a graduate of Bates College; Mater of Science of Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Doctor of Laws of Harvard University; whose early service as law clerk to both Justices Learned Hand and Felix Frankfurter nurtured the brilliance that was to mark his career and has stood him in good stead as the wise and fair-minded Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine; author of numerous articles in legal publications, active in community affairs and trustee of a sister institution, he joins former law partners and past members of the Court as an alumnus of Bowdoin College.