

MARGARET CHASE SMITH, of Skowhegan, junior United States Senator from Maine, one of the best-known women of the country if not indeed known all over the world, whose political skill has been shown at the polls many times and who has displayed in the Senate what can be accomplished by a woman of common sense, good judgment, and brevity of speech, the first woman ever elected to the Senate on her very own, who has for many years shown a high regard for Bowdoin which Bowdoin now reciprocates.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS