

ALLAN WOODCOCK, of the Class of 1912, distinguished surgeon and citizen of Maine, praiseworthy in devotion to his high calling, and of rare clinical insight. His skill in medicine has been acknowledged by his peers by fellowships in the American College of Surgeons and the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons. Serving his country with the Army in World War I, his service to his community as doctor and citizen well merited his election to the Bangor City Council by an overwhelming majority. Active alumnus of Bowdoin College, an Overseer since 1942, and father of two Bowdoin sons, his alma mater recognizes him on the fortieth anniversary of his graduation from the Bowdoin Medical School.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF SCIENCE
