

WALLACE WITMER ANDERSON, of Portland, Pastor of the State Street Congregational Church; Bachelor of Arts of Amherst College, Bachelor of Divinity of Union Theological Seminary; who after helpful pastorates in Massachusetts and New Hampshire has since 1938 been the minister of one of the strongest churches in Maine, worthy successor of illustrious predecessors some of whom, Calkins, Leavitt, Schroeder, are honorary members of this college; faithful pastor, kindly and friendly interpreter of the gospel, representative of that important branch of the Christian church with which for nearly one hundred and fifty years this college has had close and helpful relations; fittingly honored today when more than ever the academic world recognizes the importance of religion.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF DIVINITY