

BOWDOIN COLLEGE
Commencement 1985

JOSEPH EDWARD BRENNAN, Governor of the State of Maine, you have traveled, as you remind us from time to time, to the Blaine House in Augusta from Munjoy Hill in Portland by way of Cheverus High School, the United States Army, Boston College, and the University of Maine Law School. The practical wisdom you acquired in your journey and the knowledge of economics and law you learned in courses you have generously put to the service of the State. As County Attorney, as State Representative, as State Senator, as Attorney General, and now as Governor you have served Maine well. Economic and educational concerns are your concerns, and you have addressed them thoughtfully and seriously. This Maine college takes pleasure today in honoring Maine's first citizen. Honoris causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS.
