

RALPH OWEN BREWSTER, of the Class of 1909, summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, resident of Dexter and errant resident of Washington, United States Senator, Overseer of the College; for the past twenty-five years the stormy petrel of Maine politics, and like that famous denizen of our coast ready for each succeeding storm; since 1917 successively member of the State Legislature, State Senator, Governor, Congressman, United States Senator, one of less than a hundred men in our whole national history who has served as Governor, Congressman, Senator – for service to the state and as earnest of still more service in the future.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS