

VAN WYCK BROOKS, graduate of Harvard College, lately Doctor of Letters of Columbia and Tufts, Pulitzer Prize winner; one of the best-known and most acute critics of American literature; author of many important critical works and recently of an invaluable treatise on the New England mind; showing by his writings that sound scholarship is by no means limited to academic halls, and that the trained pen he wields has much to teach scholars in colleges; rightly honored by Bowdoin that takes pride in having herself contributed a little to the “Flowering of New England,” and that being of New England ancestry, tradition, location, and constituency, gladly greets the foremost living interpreter of New England.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS