

GEORGE FOSTER CARY, of the Class of 1888; for twenty-nine years an Overseer of the College, serving on most important committees and devoting much of his time to the services of Bowdoin; banker, President of the Casco Mercantile Trust Company, uniting the prudence and faithfulness of Washington County with the progressive vision of Cumberland.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS