

JOHN ELIPHAZ CHAPMAN, of the Class of 1877; Overseer of the College; for forty-five years the ideal secretary of one of Bowdoin's famous classes; endowed with the same gift of style that distinguished his beloved brother; courteous and sincere critic of men and affairs; beloved by all who know him.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS