

MARY ELLEN CHASE, graduate of the University of Maine; Professor of English at Smith College; daughter of a Bowdoin father, and sister of a Bowdoin brother graduating today; whose interpretation of Maine life in A Goodly Heritage has added to the classics of our state a beautifully written, beautifully interpretative account of those homes that have distinguished this corner of New England which smiles at us above all others for simple, spiritual values.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS