

CHARLES ALBERT COFFIN, native of Maine; organizer and first President of the General Electric Company, and Chairman of its Board of Directors until a few months ago; formerly Trustee of Vassar College; patron of education and of the arts; honored by Union College and Yale University; who during the war placed his great executive talent at the service of his country, and in time of peace has been very influential in extending the scope of electrical science and business.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS