

LOUIS ARTHUR COOLIDGE, graduate of Harvard College; formerly Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; influential in civic affairs both in state and nation; at one time president of the famous Gridiron Club of Washington; author of biographies important in the political history of this country; distinguished for welfare service during the war; leading citizen of Boston who exemplifies New England ideas of duty and service.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS