

WILLIAM ROBERT CROWLEY, a former member of the Class of 1908; well known in college days as captain of a champion football team, a loyal undergraduate, and as assistant in chemistry to our beloved Professor Robinson; since graduation in New York City loyal to his Bowdoin and Maine traditions; known nationally as an advocate and interpreter of clean intercollegiate sport.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS