

The Honorands of The 2007 Commencement

Stanley F. Druckenmiller '75 Doctor of Humane Letters

Stanley F. Druckenmiller is chairman, CEO, and founder of Duquesne Capital Management in New York City, and a member of the Bowdoin class of 1975. His extraordinary record of success in the world of finance is matched by a remarkable record of philanthropy – at his alma mater and elsewhere. He was elected overseer of the College in 1991, trustee in 1996, and trustee emeritus in 2002. During his service on the Governing Boards, he helped shape the College's investment policies in ways that have increased endowment yields significantly. His gift to build Stanley F. Druckenmiller Hall, named for his grandfather (a physician in Pennsylvania for many years), gave a tremendous boost to the sciences at Bowdoin. There is also a Stanley F. Druckenmiller Professorship in Environmental Studies, a Druckenmiller Professorship in Asian Culture, and a Druckenmiller Scholarship Fund at Bowdoin. He is chairman of the board of the Harlem Children's Zone and serves on the boards of the Robin Hood Foundation, the Children's Scholarship Fund, and Memorial Sloan-Kettering.
