

JOSEPH BLAKE DRUMMOND, of the reunion Class of 1907, of Portland; Doctor of Medicine of 1910; physician and surgeon; captain of a famous Bowdoin football team; loyal to the college by deeds as well as words; Instructor and Professor of Anatomy in the last decade of the Medical School of Maine; kindly and helpful to scores of Bowdoin undergraduates who have sought his professional services; like so many of his noble profession which he represents today, hard-working and self-sacrificing to a degree, skilful in the art of healing, and warm-hearted to all who are desolate and oppressed.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF SCIENCE