

FRANK GEORGE FARRINGTON, of the Class of 1894; member of the Board of Overseers since 1924, Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine; whose career in law, in politics, and on the bench has been characterized by unswerving integrity and high-minded Christian spirit; enjoying at Bowdoin the unique distinction of being the popular man of his class, and father of a popular man thirty-three years later; bound to the College by the strongest of all loyalties: those of sentiment, family, and service.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS