

ALBERT TROWBRIDGE GOULD, of the Class of 1908, Trustee of the College, son of a Maine seacoast town who has become one of the leading admiralty lawyers of the country; lover of the sea and loyal friend of men who have gone down to the sea in ships; like our own Donald MacMillan and Captain Bob Bartlett, friend and disciple of Sir Wilfred Grenfell and an important factor in the work of the Grenfell Association, and many other good causes for those who live near or by the sea; serving his College today with rare ability at much self-sacrifice; lawyer who practices his profession with integrity and the highest sense of honor, ideal Trustee.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS