

DANIEL IRVING GROSS, of the Class of 1902; distinguished in college for literary and scholarly ability; student of theology and law; pastor of one of Maine's largest and most influential churches; president of the State Congregationalist Conference; eloquent preacher and useful citizen.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF DIVINITY