

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN HAYDEN, of the Class of 1902; Doctor of Medicine, Chief Surgeon of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, who has devoted himself for nearly twenty-four years to the treatment and care of the disabled veterans of every war from the Mexican War to the World War, and is now Chief Surgeon in charge of all medical and surgical activities in which sixteen large government hospitals are concerned; expert in hospital administration; devoted servant of the American people.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF SCIENCE