

BOWDOIN COLLEGE
Commencement 1988

TINA HOWE, 26 years ago as a teacher at Morse High School in Bath, you wrote, and produced at Pickard Theater, a one-act play called Capacity Five. Today you return as one of the most widely admired writers for the American Stage! Yours are an Outer Circle Critics Award, an Obie Award for Distinguished Playwriting, and a Tony nomination for Best Play of 1986-87. We take particular pleasure in knowing that you, a deft portrayer of the complexities of love, have been married since your Brunswick days to a fellow writer, Norman Levy, of the Bowdoin Class of 1957. We salute the author of Museum, The Art of Dining, Painting Churches, and Coastal Disturbances at mid-career, deeply pleased with her past, eagerly awaiting her future. Honoris causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS.
