

WILLIAM MITCHELL KENDALL, of New York City; graduate of Harvard in the Class of 1876; architect of national reputation; Trustee of the American Academy of Rome; member of the national committee on war memorials; senior member of the well-known firm of McKim, Mead & White; consulting architect of the College, who designed our beautiful Walker Art Gallery, the Class of '75 Gate, and is now drawing plans for the War Memorial.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS