

ELROY OSBORNE LACASCE, of the Class of 1914, in college a prominent athlete, junior class president, senior class marshal, member of the Student Council; after graduation engaged in military service, then in teaching; for the past fifteen years Principal of Fryeburg Academy, an old and well-known Maine school with which famous men have been associated from Daniel Webster on; an alumnus who in the shady streets and quiet lanes of life has wrought well for his college; quiet and able executive representing today the schoolteachers of the State of Maine whom the College ever delights to honor.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS