

THOMAS LITTLEFIELD MARBLE, of the famous Class of 1898; Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, who has carried to the bar and the bench of our neighboring state the qualities that marked his career as a student at Bowdoin: high scholarship, mental integrity, ability to see the other fellow's point of view, kindness, and justice.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS