

WALLACE EDWARD MASON, of the Class of 1882, who in his early days left the profession of teaching to practice law and had the wisdom to return; for the past sixteen years Principal of the New Hampshire State Normal School at Keene, where in our neighboring state he has exercised a wide influence both in education and in affairs, and who has answered the question: "Who shall teach the teachers?" by being himself a student of education all his days.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS