

JOHN CLAIR MINOT, of the Class of 1896; literary editor of the Boston Herald, whose words, mainly of wisdom, have more influence on the reading public of New England than those of any other journalist; devoted alumnus of Bowdoin; loyal to his friends and to his ideals from the first reaction of his brain to the point of his pen.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS