

Bowdoin College

Commencement 1979

EDWARD CORNELIUS O'LEARY, a graduate of The College of the Holy Cross; Licentiate in Sacred Theology of St. Paul's University, Ottawa, Canada; Bishop of Portland; whose good works have touched all segments of his native State of Maine; in his all too brief four years in our community, he enhanced the development of harmony and good will between churches through example, humor and diplomacy; under his leadership as Bishop, the Diocesan Human Services Agency, serving all, has become the largest private social service agency in the State; exemplar of his personal motto, "One Who Serves," we welcome him into the Bowdoin family.

Honoris Causa, Doctor of Laws
