

WILLIAM ROBINSON PATTANGALL, Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine; distinguished successor of illustrious predecessors many of whom this College has delighted to honor as holding the office of highest importance in the State; known far beyond the borders of his native Maine for wit, keenness, and great intellectual brilliance; master of epigram and satire, he has contributed much to the literature of our State; and in his earlier days as journalist and editor exercised by the scintillations of his writings a very real influence on the social and political life of Maine; an aristocrat in intellect, he has usually been a democrat in performance, and he is now adding lustre and strength to the bench which is and ever must be the guardian of the rights of the common people.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
