

WALLACE COPELAND PHILOON, of the Class of 1905; Overseer of the College; Brigadier General in the United States Army; a graduate of West Point with distinguished service in China, the Philippines, Panama, at present in command of Fort McClellan, Alabama, one of the most important training camps in the country; ranking officer of hundreds of Bowdoin men now in the Army; a modest, firm, intelligent officer who serves without fear and without reproach.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF SCIENCE