

LEONARD AUGUSTUS PIERCE, of the Class of 1905; member of the Board of Overseers since 1924; brilliant student both of Bowdoin and Harvard; thoroughly versed in the law and of such integrity and ability that he is qualified to hold any position in the state, in the bar or on the bench; one who despite his politics is regarded by the people of Maine unanimously from Houlton to Portland as a lawyer to be trusted and admired, representative also today of a loyal and splendid class returning for its twenty-fifth reunion.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS